Preface

(translated from the Publisher's Note of the first Bengali edition)

The best introduction to the author of this book is given by the work itself. Pūjyapāda Parivrājakācāryya Tridaṇḍiswāmī Śrīmad Bhakti Rakṣaka Śrīdhara Mahārāja is the fit recipient of the grace bestowed upon him by that great Universal Guru who shines like the sun among the Gauḍiyya Ācāryyas: Om Viṣṇupāda Śrī Śrīmad Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī Goswāmī Prabhupāda. Śrīla Prabhupāda, now left this world to join the eternal divine pastimes, is the Divine Agent to flood the world with the nectarine universal preaching of the glory of the Supreme Lord, in the Divine Succession of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu. Although the devotional community is well-acquainted with the illustrious personality of His Holiness B.R. Śrīdhara Mahārāja, I may nonetheless take the opportunity to enumerate some of his glories herein for my self-purification.

The brilliance of his unprecedented scholarship is found in the artful compilation and harmony of Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam, Life-Nectar of the Surrendered Souls, accurately drawn from the axiomatic teachings of pure devotion (bhakti-siddhānta-vānī) as evolved by the Vaiṣṇava preceptors in the line of the bona fide Scriptures. We have already seen the extraordinary competence of His Holiness in preaching the beautiful, illuminating conceptions of the kings of transcendental scholars—the Vaiṣṇava Preceptors headed by Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātana, and Śrī Jīva—in various languages throughout the whole of India. Upon reading the first Sanskrit poem composed by His Holiness, Śrī Bhaktivīnoda Viraha Daśakam, our Divine Master commented that the writing was of a happy style. Śrīla Prabhupāda profusely praised the devotional gravity of the presentation, revealing his deep satisfaction and joyful confidence that in times to come the message of Śrī Caitanyadeva would be befittingly upheld and preached by the author. Just prior to his entrance into his eternal pastimes, Śrīla Prabhupāda, in preference to hearing devotional prayer (kīrttana) performed by devotees recognized for expertise, called for His Holiness' pure rendering of Śrī Rūpa-mañjarī pada, sei mora sampada, the worshipful prayer of the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavas' most cherished ideal.

The theme of Life-Nectar of the Surrendered Souls is described in the introductory first chapter, Prelude to Approaching Nectar. In some instances throughout the work, the Bengali verse interpretation of the venerated pure devotees has been fittingly given for the translation of the authentic stanzas quoted. In Words of Nectar from the Devotees, statements of the Supreme Lord have occasionally been quoted in conformation with the development of the theme. In his explanatory aphorisms that precede each stanza, the author reveals the unique axiomatic truths (siddhānta) of his Divine Succession. Doubtlessly, the good readers who know the supereminence of the Gauḍīya-siddhānta—the axiomatic devotional teachings in the line of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu—will be overjoyed with His Holiness' novel illuminations. In the epilogue, the author has mentioned his line of Divine Succession and the time and place of the writing of the book.

It has been vividly illustrated herein that a life without surrender unto the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa is utterly futile, and the most treasured perfection achieved through exclusive surrender has been revealed. This will especially encourage those who are aspiring to enter the land of devotion, drawing them onward to the lotus feet of Śrī Hari. And it will infuse spiritual joy and exhilaration in the hearts of the established devotees. This book is the supreme wealth of the surrendered souls. Devotion for the Supreme Lord, Śrī Hari-bhakti, is the singular quintessence in this world, and only by exclusive surrender, śaraṇāgati, is it happily attained. May this Life-Nectar of the Surrendered Souls graciously appear all the world over, distributing the ever-increasing aspiration to reach the abode of divine ecstasy—the lotus feet of Śrī Hari. Just as the repeated rubbing of sandalwood produces more and more charming fragrance, we remain confident that the faithful devotees, whose only pleasure is in conclusive theological truth (sat-siddhānta), will experience the ambrosial devotional fragrance of this holy treatise in their spiritual discussions, and thus relish transcendental delight. We shall consider ourselves blessed when this book inevitably comes to be treasured by the august assembly of the fortunate souls.

Publisher's Note

Śrī Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam, The Life-nectar of the Surrendered Souls, is the crown-jewel of divine literatures as the eternal elixir of life for the exclusively surrendered souls, the bestower of the perpetual relish of full-fledged nectar, and the awakening and sustaining fountainhead of life in Divine Consorhood. Indeed, who can fittingly portray her holy glory and renown? In the same way we cannot but feel ever inadequate when we attempt to sing the glories of the illustrious author, our most worshipful Divine Master, Om Viṣṇupāda Śrī Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣaka Śrīdhara Deva Goswāmī Mahārāja, the dearmost intimate attendant of the great pioneer pre-eminent among the Gauḍīya Acaryyas, Śrī Gaurāṅga's transcendental message incarnate—Prabhupāda Śrī Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswati Goswāmī Ṭhākura. Even without world itineracy, the seat of Universal Guru (Jagad-guru) of the world's renowned gurus has been gracefully won by Śrīla Śrīdhara Deva Goswāmī Mahārāja while presiding in the grand, noble distinction of his venerable years of devotional life at the Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Math of Nabadwip, his exclusive, personal holy place of bhajana.

Since its first printing, which was in Bengali, this sublime literature has brought heartfelt satisfaction to the stalwart devotees of the highest order, being hailed by them as an Essential Scripture to be unfailingly sung and cultivated as a daily devotional function in spiritual life, as is customarily practiced with the Holy Scriptures such as the Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā. In both the Eastern and Western countries, its English publication will doubtlessly be similarly worshipped with the utmost reverence, constantly studied and sung with devotion by the surrendered souls of fine theistic intellect, and by the noble souls engaged in their divine search for the Supreme Lord.

This monumental work was originally composed in the Sanskrit language. The authentic Bengali translation that was sanctioned by the author is extremely developed, profoundly exploring the heart of the book; scholars who know the internal conclusive scriptural purports can alone realize how difficult is its translation and publication into English. However, by the boundless mercy of the most magnanimous Supreme Lord Śrī Caitanyacandra, the fountainhead of all incarnations of Godhead, and by the causeless grace of His most beloved, our Divine Master, and the pure devotees whose hearts are absorbed in divine love—this formidable task has now been fulfilled. Thus, I again and again worship the holy lotus feet of Them all.

For their tireless efforts to usher in the Advent of the present edition in its perfectly elegant form, all those Godbrothers and Godsisters who served in the various facets of the publication have attained the unending graces of our Divine Master and the Vaiṣṇavas. They have bound us in eternal gratitude. For executing the task of the English translation, proofing, and editing, special mention is due to Tridaṇḍiswāmī Śrīpāda Bhakti Ānanda Sāgara Mahārāja, assisted by Śrīmān Nimāisundara Brahmācārī Vidyāvinoda. And for their dedicated effort in securing the necessary funds and assistance for the printing and publishing of the work in a most dignified presentation, special mention is due to Śrīpāda Dayādhara Gaurāṅga

Dāsa Brahmācārī Bhakti Prabhākara Prabhu and all the good devotees assisting him.

In conclusion, invoking the charming verse of Śrī Gurupāda-padma, this humble servant earnestly prays at his holy lotus feet that this crown-jewel of Sacred Writings, Śrī Śrī Prapannajīvanāmṛtam, may remain with Her merciful presence in every land, in every home, and in every heart. And in Her gracious acquiescence, may She acknowledge the glorious victory of Her goodwill by churning and overflowing the entire living universe with Her supramundane wave of ecstatic love, to bless all souls with the supreme good fortune.

Foreword

Because the soul is a particle of consciousness, it is endowed with free will. Eliminating free will, only gross matter remains. Without independence, the soul could not progress from bondage to liberation, and his ultimate salvation would have been impossible. But his spirit of exploitation is a foreign force, an intoxicant—a miscalculation that surrounds his independence.

Life's objectives may be scientifically analyzed as threefold: exploitation, renunciation, and dedication. The most common tendency is in those engaged in exploiting other persons, species, or elements, for mundane sense enjoyment. They desire to materially elevate themselves in the present environment, and thus they are described as elevationists. A more sober class discover the severe equal and opposite reactions to worldly pursuits, and they engage in renunciation of the world, in search of an equilibrium comparable to a deep, dreamless slumber. By being unawake to the world, they hope to escape its concomitant reactions and sufferings. Thus their goal is liberation, and they are known as salvationists or liberationists. But through the correct interpretation of the Revealed Scriptures by learned votaries such as Śrī Sanātana Goswāmī, Śrī Jīva Goswāmī, and Śrī Rāmānuja, the devotees of divinity know the pursuits of both exploitation and renunciation as not only fruitless, but injurious to real progress.

The normal, wholesome, and happy plane is in the life of dedication. Without exploiting or borrowing anything from the environment, and without attempting to artificially renounce it, one who is sincere to dedicate himself naturally comes into contact with a higher and more subtle plane of life. By his readiness to give and serve, he will attain to a higher society and achieve an appropriate master. The enjoying spirit forces one to be associated with a lower section to control and enjoy. And the renouncing spirit allures even the scholars with its 'prestigious' superiority over exploitation. Thus it is more dangerous, just as a half-truth is more dangerous than falsehood. As it is difficult to awaken someone from the deepest possible sleep, the liberationists may remain for incalculable time within their cell of non-differentiated liberation. But the higher existence will invite the service of one who desires to purely dedicate himself without remuneration.

Sevā—service, dedication, is the summum bonum of the teachings of the Vaiṣṇava school, the third plane of life where every unit is a dedicating member in an organic whole. In such a normal adjustment, everyone mutually assists one another in their service to the centre, the higher recipient, the highest entity. Everything is existing to satisfy Him, because He must possess this qualification to be the Absolute. He is the prime cause of all causes—and everything exists for Him, to satisfy Him.

A barren conception of mere 'deathlessness' cannot afford us any knowledge of a positive thing, but only freedom from the negative side. If immortality means 'no influence of mortality,' what, then, is its positive conception? What will be the nature, movement, and progress of that which is immortal? Without this understanding, immortality is only an abstract idea. Because it does not appear to exhibit the symptoms of death, stone would be 'more immortal' than human beings, and conscious entities would be 'mortal,' forever denied immortality! What, then, is the positive conception of immortality? How are the immortal 'immortal'? What is the positive reality in immortality? How can one become immortal? One must search out his intrinsic location in the universal order. It will not do to attempt to solve only the negative side of life which is full of suffering—birth, death, infirmity, and disease. We should know that there exists a conception of life worth living for. This positive side has been almost totally neglected in general religious views.

The 'immortality' professed by the schools of Buddha and Śāṅkarācāryya yields no positive life. Their goals are mahā-nirvāṇa and brahma-sāyujya respectively. The Buddhist theory is that after liberation, nothing remains. They crave absolute extinction of material existence (prakṛti-nirvāṇa). And the Śāṅkarite monist theory of liberation is to lose one's individuality by 'becoming one' with the non-differentiated aspect of the Absolute. That is, they crave extinction in Brahman (brāhma-nirvāṇa). They postulate that when the triad of seer, seen, and seeing (drāṣṭā-dṛśya-darśana), or knower, knowable, and knowledge (jñātā-jñeya-jñāna) culminate at one point, the triad is destroyed (tripuṭi-vināśa) and nothing remains.

Material action and reaction ceases in Virajā, the river of passivity, which is located at the uppermost edge of this illusory (māyika) world. And above Virajā is the destination of the Śāṅkarites—the 'abscissa' stage or the non-differentiated plane of Brahman, called Brahmaloka, which is located at the lowest edge of the spiritual realm. Both are vague areas of 'negative immortality.' Brahmaloka is a marginal or 'buffer' state midway between the material and spiritual worlds. Composed of innumerable souls, it is an immortal plane devoid of specific variegatedness (nirvviśeṣa). It possesses positivity only in the sense that it is a plane of existence, a background (kāṣṭhā), but in itself it lacks positive development of variegated existence (kalā). The nature of the background is oneness, and development woven over it necessitates plurality or a differentiated nature (kalā-kāṣṭhādi rūpeṇa pariṇāma-pradāyini—Caṇḍī, Mārkaṇḍeya Purāṇa).

In the Bhagavad-gītā (15.16), mutable (kṣara) and immutable (akṣara) existences are described, representing the personal and the impersonal, the development and the basis, or differentiated and non-differentiated conceptions of general existence. The mutable is represented by the multitude of embodied living beings, while the immutable aspect is the great expanse of the all-accomodating Absolute, the Brahman (8.3). In the analysis of worldly action, the most subtle form of unfructified past action, prior to the present tendency (the seedling stage) to sin, has been defined (B.r.s. Pūrvva 1.23) as unknowable, indistinct, and of untraceable origin (kūṭa). The immutable Brahman aspect of the Absolute is similarly defined as being one-dimensional—undetectable, unspecific, and of no definite colour, sound, or taste; an unknown and unknowable, ‘un-understandable’ stage of existence (kūṭa). But the Supreme Lord, Kṛṣṇa, is above both the mutable and immutable existences, and thus His glories are sung throughout the Vedas and in the world as the Puruṣottama, the Supreme Personality (Bg. 15.18). Śrī Suka-deva Goswāmī affirms that in the most remote and distant plane, Lord Kṛṣṇa is to be found: everywhere is He—the fountainhead of all conceptions (vidūra-kāṣṭhāya, Bhā: 2.4.14). He cannot be eliminated.

Thus, the ‘immortality’ of the impersonalistic schools such as Buddhists, Śāṅkarites, etc., offers no positive life. But in Vaiṣṇavism, immortality is positive, dynamic existence. Above the non-differentiated Brahman aspect of the Absolute, the transcendental, variegated existence begins in the first glimpse of the spiritual sky, the plane known as Paravyoma (C.c. Madhya 19.153). Situated there in the spiritual plane is the positive Kingdom of God: firstly Vaikuṅṭha, then Ayodhya, Dvārakā, Mathurā, and finally, above all, Goloka. Transcending the vague areas of ‘negative immortality’ that the impersonalists aspire for, the devotees—the Vaiṣṇavas—dedicate themselves to the life of eternal devotional service to the Supreme Lord of the transcendental realm (Bg. 18.54). Although the soul can maladapt himself to a fallen state of existence in the planes of exploitation and renunciation, he is inherently adoptable to the positive life in the Kingdom of God. And fully blossomed, he reaches the realm of Goloka (svarūpe sabāra haya golokete sthiti—Śrī Śrī Kṛṣṇera Aṣṭottara-śata-nāma).

Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam: amṛta means ‘undying,’ or ‘nectar,’ and jīvana means ‘life.’ Positive immortality is possible only for the surrendered (prapannānām). All others are necessarily mortal. Only those who have wholly given themselves to the centre are living in eternality. Surrender is fully established in its excellence and its constant position. Yet there is variegatedness within that constancy, in the form of progressive movement, or pastimes (vilāsa). The Supreme Absolute Personality being infinitely superior to both the mutable ‘mortals’ and the immutable ‘immortal’ (negative) Brahman, only the svarūpa-siddha souls—those who are perfectly established in their divine relationship with Him—are eternally freed from the disease of mutation and mortality (svarūpena-vyavasthitiḥ, Bhā: 2.10.6).

With a broad vision, we must know ourselves as created of smaller stuff, and thus only with assistance from above can we improve our situation and achieve a position in the higher plane. A submissive, serving attitude is necessary in us. If we submit, the universal dictatorial aspect of the Absolute will take us upward to a higher prospect. He is the autocrat, the absolute knowledge, the absolute good—everything about Him is absolute. Being in a vulnerable position as we experience in this world, why, then, should we not submit to Him?

The road to the sphere of transcendence (adhokṣaja) is the deductive or descending method (avaroha-panthā). We can reach the absolute good, the absolute will, by His consent alone. Only by faith in absolute surrender is anyone allowed entry into that domain, never by 'exploration,' by 'colonization,' or by attempting to become a 'monarch' there. No inductive or ascending method (āroha-panthā) such as renunciation or yoga, etc., can compell Him to accept us. Whosoever He chooses can alone reach Him (Svet. 6.23). Although the highest point of the renunciates is desirelessness or freedom from possessiveness, the surrendered soul (śaraṇāgata) is naturally desireless (akiñcana, C.c. Madhya 22.99). Detachment is only the negative side of surrender, and above selflessness, the devotee surrenders himself to the higher substance, and this is to be awake in another world, another plane of life. Such is the positive, Vaiṣṇava conception of life—to determine one's real self beyond the jurisdiction of the world of misconception.

The nature of the progressive substance is eternal existence, knowledge, and beauty (sac-cid-ānanda). The one harmonizing organic whole (advaya-jñāna-tattva) contains all similarities and differences, held inconceivably in the hand of the Absolute (acintya-bhedābheda-tattva). And there is no anarchy in the absolute power. Nonetheless, mercy is found to be above justice. Above judiciousness, the supreme position is held by love, sympathy, and beauty: 'I am the absolute power, but I am friendly to you all. Knowing this, you need never fear (Bg.5.29).' This revelation relieves us of all apprehension: we are not victims of a chaotic environment, but it is judicious, considerate—and the ultimate dispenser is our friend.

Śrī Jīva Goswāmī has stated that of the six symptoms of surrender, to embrace the guardianship of the Lord (gotṛtve varaṇam) is central, since total surrender expresses the same ideal. The remaining five symptoms of accepting the favourable, rejecting the unfavourable, faith in the Lord's protection, full self-surrender, and humility, are natural contributing associate-servitors to the ideal (aṅgāṅgi-bhedena śad-vidhā; tatra 'gopṛtve varaṇam' evāṅgi, śaraṇā-gati-śabdenaikārthyāt; anyāni tu aṅgāni tat parikaratvāt—Bhakti-sandarbhā, 236).

Surrender is the foundation of the world of devotion. It is the very life and essence. One cannot enter into that domain without surrender. It must be present in every form of service, and to attempt divine service without it will be mere imitation or a lifeless formality. The entire gist of the Vedic instruction is to dedicate oneself to the service of the Lord. In his commentary of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Śrī Śrīdhara Swāmipāda has stated that only if the practices of devotion are initially offered to the Supreme Lord can they be recognized as devotion. To attempt to execute them and subsequently offer them cannot be pure devotion (iti nava lakṣaṇāni yasyāḥ sā, adhitena ced bhagavati viṣṇau bhaktiḥ kriyate. sā cārpitaiḥ satī yadi kriyeta, na tu kṛtā satī paścād arpyeta.) Without surrender, the activity will be adulterated with exploitation, renunciation, artificial meditation (karma, jñāna, yoga), and so on.

By constitution, the soul is the Lord's servant, and the Lord has the right to make or marr, to do anything according to His sweet will. If accepting this truth we undertake the devotional practices such as hearing, chanting, remembering, and worshipping, only then will our activity be devotional. Only the activity of the self-dedicated soul can be devotion. Sincere prayer will help us to seek the help of the Lord, but, again, prayer in the spirit of surrender can alone reach Him (Śaraṇāgati, 1.5). The path of devotion entails increasing our negative status to invite the positive to descend and embrace us: 'I am very low, and You are so high. You can purify me, take me and utilize me for Your higher purpose. Be pleased. Otherwise I am helpless, neglected.' It is impossible to take Him captive in the cage of our knowledge. Only the way of devotion can help us. In every respect He is high, great, and infinite—and we are similarly small. His mercy—His sympathy, love, and grace, are the only medium through which we can come together. And good faith is autonomous in that sweet land which is so high that we will earnestly hope and pray for the association of the higher existence as His slave; and that also will be our happy prospect for the future.

Kṛṣṇa is not within our purview, and thus we are always recommended by Scriptures and saints to approach the bona fide Divine Master and Vaiṣṇavas. To satisfy the Supreme Lord, the criterion is to satisfy our Gurudeva: if Gurudeva is dissatisfied with us, the Lord is surely dissatisfied. An analogy has been cited in the Scriptures where the Lord is compared to the sun, the Guru to a pond, and the disciple to a lotus flower. If the pond withdraws, the very sun will scorch and dry up the lotus—and the lotus will be cheered by the sun as long as the water supports and surrounds it. Yasya prasādād bhagavat prasādo, yasyāprasādān na gatiḥ kuto 'pi; dhyāyam stuvāms tasya yaśas tri-sandhyam, vande guroḥ śrī-caraṇāravindam (Gurvaṣṭakam, 8): 'I bow down to the lotus feet of Śrī Gurudeva. By his grace we achieve the grace of Kṛṣṇa; without his grace, we are lost. Therefore, at daybreak, noon, and evening, we meditate upon and sing the glories of Śrī Gurudeva, and pray for his mercy.'

The Vaiṣṇava Guru's dealings with the disciple are all grace, and his grace is his will to extend his wealth to the disciple. His instruction is the medium of asserting his will, which is service for the satisfaction of the Lord. And by service, we invite his grace. By an earnest desire to serve, we draw his sympathy and his willing extension of goodwill to encourage us in our relationship with the supreme entity. Firstly, surrender: we must offer him exclusive respect (praṇipāta), otherwise we shall not allow ourselves to approach him. Secondly, we may make our sincere and substantial enquiry (paripraśna). In a surrendered spirit, we may hear our Divine Master's messages which he delivers to us from his venerated seat, the Vyāsāsana. In that conducive setting, the proper inspiration and dictation may fortuitously come down to us. And finally, to render service (sevayā) enables us to taste the essence (Bg. 4.34).

On the instruction of his Gurudeva Devarṣi Nārada, Vyāsadeva had to undergo a progressive development (Bhā: 1.5). Nārada is established in non-calculative devotion (jñāna-sūnyā-bhakti, or jñāna-vimukta-bhakti-paramāḥ), and above Nārada is Uddhava, who is established in exclusive divine love for Kṛṣṇa (premaika-niṣṭhāḥ). Until one reaches Goloka, where there is full-fledged Kṛṣṇa conception, all other stages may be changeable. There is no further change when one is firmly established in his serving relationship with the Original Lord (svayaṁ-bhagavān), Kṛṣṇa. In the narrative of Bṛhad-Bhāgavatāmṛtam, Gopakumāra passes through Vaikuṅṭha, Ayodhya, Mathurā, Dvārakā, and then he finally arrives in Vṛndāvana. There, his particular divine relationship with the Lord firmly culminates in friendship (sakhya-rasa). For him, the previous stages were passing, although for others a permanent relationship may occur in one of them. They are progressive stages of 'positive immortality.'

On the banks of the Godāvarī river, in progressively deeper and deeper planes, the entirety of theological development was expressed in the conversation between Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu and Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya. A positive hierarchy of divine relationships with the Lord exists in progressive stages for the various types of devotees (karmmibhyaḥ...kaḥ kṛtī, Upa. 10), each type having its characteristic central relationship (vaikuṅṭhāj...vivekī na kaḥ, Upa. 9). In the divine realm, the depth and degree of surrender may also be measured according to the science of mellows (rasa-tattva): peacefulness, servitorship, friendship, parenthood, and consortherhood (śānta-, dāsya-, sakhya-, vātsalya-, madhura-rasa) are the natural divisions, each consecutively of a finer layer. And higher than even the direct consortherhood of the Godhead is the most elevated of the entire compass of devotional services—the divine service of the Supreme Predominated Moiety (Śrī Rādhā-dāsya).

According to the intensity of surrender—to the point of no return—the quality of the magnitude of truth encountered may be measured. The inner sweetness of the truth and its infinite characteristic attracts the devotees' hearts to the highest degree, so much that they never feel any satisfaction of achievement in what is actually the acme of their highest fortune. In Vaikuṅṭha, only peacefulness and servitorship are present, with a hint of friendship. If we commit the offence of giving more attention to law than to love, we will be 'cast down' from Goloka to Vaikuṅṭha: Goloka is the land of love, and there the inhabitants know nothing more. And by love is meant self-sacrifice and self-forgetfulness for the service of Kṛṣṇa, without a care for one's good or bad future—total risk in the extreme.

In his Bhakti-sandarbha, Śrī Jīva Goswāmī defines 'Bhagavān,' the Supreme Personality of Godhead, as more than 'Lord Nārāyaṇa of Vaikuṅṭha, the most powerful in all phases.' Above that, His existence, appearance, and nature attracts everyone to serve Him, love Him, and die for Him (bhajanīya-guṇa-viśiṣṭa). His qualification is so beautiful. Thus, the highest conception of the Godhead is the Kṛṣṇa conception, and He can be known by the devotees in Kṛṣṇa consciousness. Those who serve and worship the Supreme Lord according to the scriptural regulation and calculation belong to the category of Vaikuṅṭha worship. In Vaikuṅṭha, in the initial transcendental conscious conception (adhokṣaja), the Godhead as Lord Nārāyaṇa accepts reverential service in His Majestic Dignity. But the devotees of the highest order are exclusively surrendered to the service of Lord Kṛṣṇa with their innermost love and faith.

The Kṛṣṇa conception of Goloka Vṛndāvana is corroborated in the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, which is the greatest interpretation of the Vedic Scriptures. And Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu is known to be Kṛṣṇa Himself, united with His highest potency, Śrī Rādhā. Mahāprabhu Śrī Caitanyadeva has clearly revealed that the genuine interpretation and purpose of all the Revealed Scriptures is to faithfully guide us to the highest goal: the domain of love and unconditional surrender unto the central power of truth, personified in Lord Kṛṣṇa as beauty and affection. Not power, but affection is the highest force to attract us all. Consciously or unconsciously, the absolute position is held by love and affection, and love is superior to all power and knowledge. It is the real fulfillment of the inner heart. Our inner existence wants only love, beauty, and affection—neither knowledge nor power. The finite cannot capture the infinite, but the infinite can make Himself known to the finite. And when the infinite appears as a member of the finite land, the highest gain of the finite is achieved. Kṛṣṇa carries His father's shoes, and He cries when chastised by His mother. Through love, the Absolute comes down to the finite.

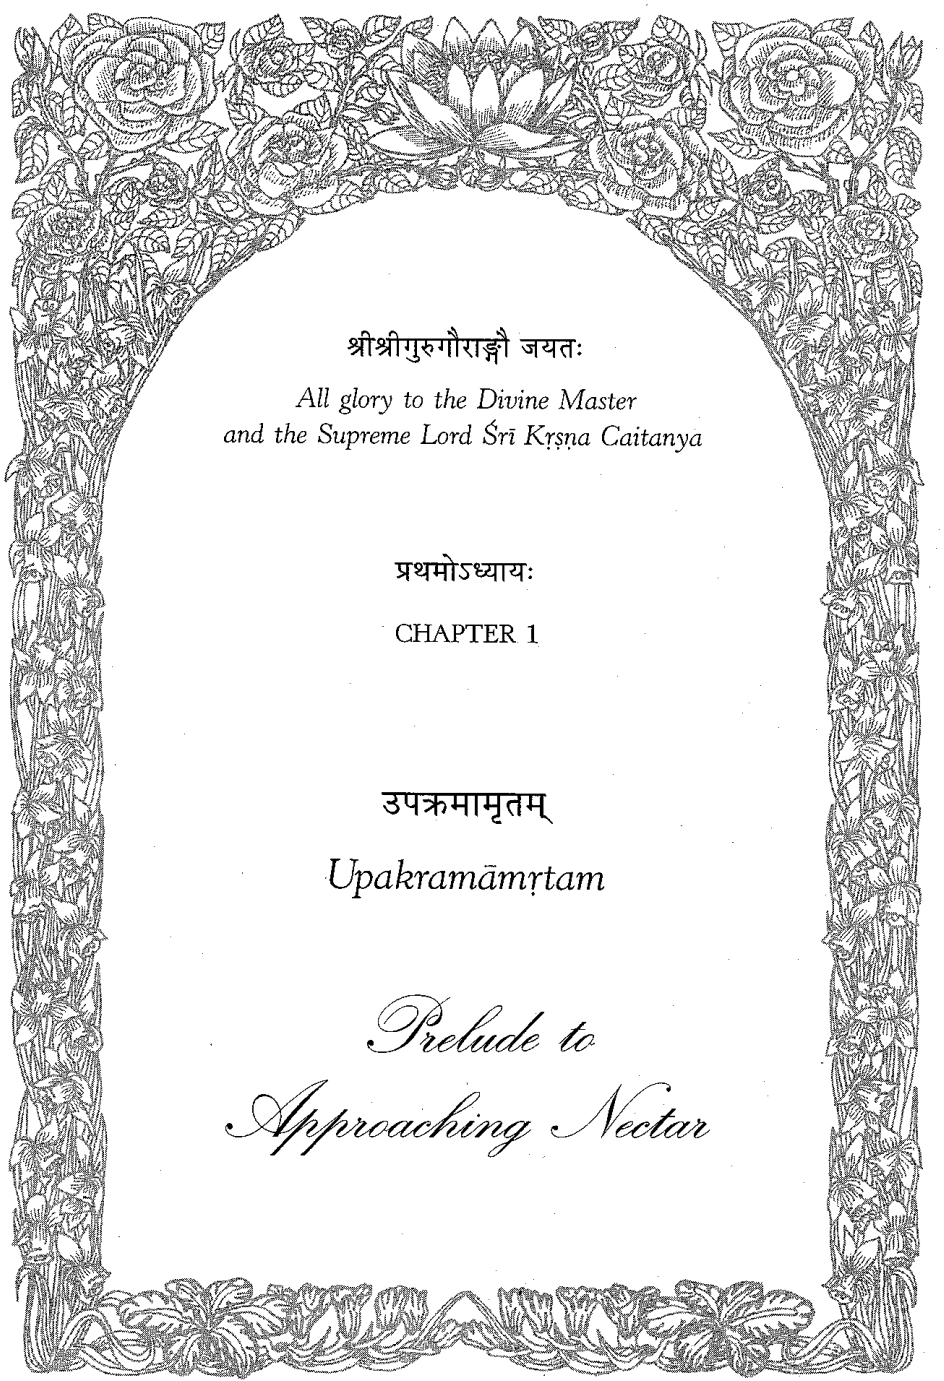

The infinite's most intimate approach to the finite is found in Vṛndāvana. The infinite comes to embrace the finite in its fullest capacity (aprākṛta), mixing with finite things so closely that people cannot perceive the Lord's transcendental Godly character as the Divinity. We, the infinitesimal souls, can attain our greatest fortune when the infinite comes to us in His highest approach—as if He were one of us! His approach is so merciful, so great, so intimate, and so perfect.

Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, who is sweetness and magnanimity combined, openly announced that we are all natural slaves of the highest entity (C.c. Madhya 20.108). But this is slavery to the great force of love and beauty. It is the greatest fortune to be utilized in any way by the absolute existence, knowledge, and beauty—to be in harmony with the highest centre. No one is forced or barred, but this is the soul's intrinsic nature.

Faithfully in the Divine Succession from Nitya-lilā-praviṣṭa Om Viṣṇupāda Paramahaṁsa Aṣṭottara-śata Śrī Śrīmad Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī Goswāmī Prabhupāda, especially inspired by the divine message of Śrīla Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda's Śaraṇāgati, and attending the authentic Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇava literatures such as Śrī Hari-bhakti-vilāsa and Bhakti-sandarbha as well as the writings of other Authorized Divine Successions such as the Rāmānuja Sampradāya—this Śrī Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam has been compiled in order to supply the devotees' spiritual sustenance and nourishment. Surrender is the indispensable necessity in the life of a devotee, and Life-Nectar of the Surrendered Souls will sustain and fortify the surrendered souls as the nectar in their lives of Positive and Progressive Immortality.

Prelude to Approaching Nectar

अथ मङ्गलाचरणम्—

श्रीगुरु-गौर-गान्धर्व्वा-गोविन्दाङ्घ्रिन् गणैः सह ।

वन्दे प्रसादतो येषां सर्वारम्भाः शुभङ्कराः ॥ १ ॥

atha maṅgalācāraṇam—

śrī-guru-gaura-gāndharvā-, govindāṅghrīn gaṇaiḥ saha vande prasādato yeṣāṃ, sarvārambhāḥ śubhankarāḥ [1]

Auspicious invocation—

I make my obeisance unto the lotus feet of my Divine Master, Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, Śrī Śrī Gāndharvā-Giridhārī (Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa), and Their associates. By Their grace, all endeavours are successful.

गौर-वाग्विग्रहं वन्दे गौराङ्गं गौरवैभवम् ।

गौर-सङ्कीर्तनोत्तमं गौरकारुण्यसुन्दरम् ॥ २ ॥ gaura-vāg-vigrahaṁ vande, gaurāṅgaṁ gaura-vaibhavam gaura-saṅkīrttanonmattam, gaura-kāruṇya-sundaram [2]

I make my obeisance unto the Deity, Gaura-Sarasvatī—the personified message of the Golden Lord Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu—whose bodily lustre is of a beautiful golden hue, like that of the selfsame Lord Gaurasundara; who is the personal expansion of that Supreme Lord Gaurahari; who is always intoxicated by preaching the message of that Golden Lord; and whose divine beauty blooms in the revelation of Lord Gaurāṅga's mercy potency.

(This is the fundamental meaning of the verse. Within the scope of the Sanskrit language, various expanded purports may be drawn from the original.)

गुरुरूपहरिं गौरं राधारुचिरुचावृतम् ।

नित्यं नौमि नवद्वीपे नामकीर्तननर्तनैः ॥ ३ ॥ guru-rūpa-hariṁ gauram, rādhā-ruci-rucāvṛtam nityam naumi navadvīpe, nāma-kīrttana-narttanaiḥ [3]

Perpetually do I sing the glories of Lord Gaurāṅga, who is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śrī Hari, embraced by the heart and halo of Śrī Rādhikā, and who has descended as the Divine Master. In this holy abode of Śrī Navadvīpa Dhāma, He is absorbed in the pastimes of profusely chanting the holy names, dancing in ecstasy.

(As with verse two, expanded purports may be drawn from this verse.)

श्रीमत्प्रभुपदाम्भोजमधुपेभ्यो नमो नमः ।

तृप्यन्तु कृपया तेऽत्र प्रपन्नजीवनामृते ॥ ४ ॥ śrīmat-prabhu-padāmbhoja-, madhupebhyo namo namaḥ tṛpyantu kṛpayā te 'tra, prapanna-jīvanāmṛte [4]

Again and again I make my obeisance unto the eternal personal servitors of my Divine Master, who drink the nectar of his lotus feet. I pray they may be graciously pleased in tasting this Life-Nectar of the Surrendered Souls.

आत्मविज्ञप्तिः—

ātma-vijñaptiḥ—

aty-arvācīna-rūpo 'pi, prācīnānām susammatān ślokaṅ katipayān atra, cāharāmi satāṃ mude [5]

A humble petition—

Despite my disqualifications, for the satisfaction of the pure devotees I have compiled in this book an anthology of stanzas that are well established by our predecessors.

“तद्वाग्विसर्गो जनताघविप्लवो यस्मिन् प्रतिश्लोकमबद्धवत्यपि ।

नामान्यनन्तस्य यशोऽङ्कितानि यत् शृण्वन्ति गायन्ति गृणन्ति साधवः ॥ ६ ॥”

“tad-vāg-visargo janatāgha-viplavo yasmin prati-ślokaṁ abaddhavaty api

nāmāny anantasya yaśo 'ṅkitāni yat śṛṇvanti gāyanti ḡṃanti sādavaḥ [6]"

“Even if every stanza is imperfectly composed, that is, unclucidly expressed, the sins of the people are totally vanquished by those expressions or books in which the glorious holy names of the Infinite Supreme Lord are described—since the pure devotees hear those holy names (from a qualified preacher), they solitarily sing those holy names (even in the absence of others), and they chant the unending glories of those holy names (in the presence of a deserving listener).”

“अभिव्यक्ता मत्तः प्रकृतिलघुरूपादपि बुधा
विधात्री सिद्धार्थान् हरिगुणमयी वः कृतिरियम् ।
पुलिन्देनाप्यग्निः किमु समिधमुन्मथ्य जनितो
हिरण्यश्रेणीनामपहरति नान्तःकलुषताम् ॥ ७ ॥”

“abhivyaktā mattaḥ prakṛti-laghu-rūpād api budhā vidhātrī siddhārthān hari-guṇamayī vaḥ kṛtir iyam pulindenāpy agniḥ kim u samidham unmathya janito hiranya-śreṇīnām apaharati nāntaḥ kaluṣatām [7]"

“O learned personalities, this treatise, composed of the divine qualities of Lord Hari, will fulfill your cherished wishes despite the fact that it is presented by me, a very insignificant person. Does not the fire ignited from pieces of wood rubbed together by a low-born barbarian dissipate the impurities in gold?”

यथोक्ता रूपपादेन नीचेनोत्पादितेऽनले ।

yathoktā rūpa-pādena, nīcenotpādite 'nale hemnaḥ śuddhis tathaivatra, virahārtti-hṛtiḥ satām [8]

As Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmipāda has (in his humility) expressed that gold can be purified with fire lit by a barbarian, similarly, the pure devotees' grief born of their separation from the Lord may also be dispelled by this book (which will light the lamp of their divine love for the Lord).

अन्तः कवियशस्कामं साधुतावरणं बहिः । antaḥ kavi-yaśas-kāmaṁ, sādhutāvaraṇaṁ bahiḥ śudhyantu sādhaḥ sarve, duścikitsyam imaṁ janam [9]

○ saintly devotees, please purify this wrongdoer who on the pretext of saintliness desires in his heart the prestige of a poet, and who is thus afflicted with the practically incurable disease of insincerity.

कृष्णगाथाप्रिया भक्ता भक्तगाथाप्रियो हरिः ।

*kṛṣṇa-gāthā-priyā bhaktā, bhakta-gāthā-priyo hariḥ

Tidings of Lord Kṛṣṇa are naturally very dear to the devotees, and tidings of the Lord's devotees are also dear to Him. Since narratives of both the Supreme Lord and His devotees can be found within this book, I have hope, ○ pure devotees, that you may be propitiated hereby.

svabhāva-kṛpayā santo, mad uddeśya-malinatām saṁśodhyāṅgīkuru dhvaṁ bho, hy ahaituka kṛpābdhayaḥ [11]

○ pure devotees, by your natural divine grace, kindly purify me of ill motives (offences) and accept this treatise. Certainly you will do so, because you are the ocean of causeless mercy.

Introduction to the book—

The substance expressed within the ten chapters of this holy book called Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam gives life to the surrendered souls, effecting their eternal growth and nourishment. It is the panacea of the heart and spiritual senses, bestowing those dedicated devotees' mutual happiness by the ever-increasingly newer and newer play of supramundane joy (aprākṛta-rasa). Lord Kṛṣṇa and His associates are portrayed in their natural pastimes of separation and union, and the line of unconditional surrender as established by Scriptures and saints has been elucidated.

Carefully compiled in this book is the nectar of the deep, heart-revealing transcendental messages of those devotees whose hearts are unalloyed; who are servitors of the dust of the lotus feet of Kṛṣṇa; who perform their every act for Kṛṣṇa; who are filled with insatiable desire exclusively in love of Kṛṣṇa and sustain their lives on Kṛṣṇa's remnants alone; who desire only Kṛṣṇa's pleasure and serve the servants of Kṛṣṇa; whose hearts burn in separation of Kṛṣṇa and overflow with ecstasy in the association of Kṛṣṇa; whose relative and friend is Kṛṣṇa; and whose one and only beloved is Kṛṣṇa.

Along with these expressions of the devotees are carefully collected the words of supreme nectar—springing directly from the lotus mouth of Lord Govinda—which vanquish the heartbreak of the devotees; which fulfill the devotee’s hopes and earnest aspirations; which destroy all doubt and sever the knot of ignorance; which are dazzling with transcendental wisdom and astonish the heart by miraculous waves of divine rapture; which are the great panacea for the devotee’s heart afflicted with the piercing pangs of separation; which are incited wholly for the devotee irrespective of his qualification or disqualification, so much so, that the Lord is bound by His pledge to give Himself to His devotee; and which openly proclaim with great ecstasy that His very nature is to be subjugated solely by the affection of His devotee, reassuring His devotees in all circumstances.

○ pure and spotless devotees, may you drink deeply the quintessence of these divine elixirs.

Chapter summary—

An auspicious invocation, a humble petition, an introduction to the book and its chapters, and the theme of the philosophy of the book have, to the best of my ability, all been entered within this first chapter named Upakramāmṛtam or Prelude to Approaching Nectar.

द्वितीयाध्यायके नाम श्रीशास्त्रवचनामृते । dvitīyādhyāyake nāma, śrī-śāstra-vacanāmṛte prapatti-viṣayā nānā-, śāstroktiḥ sanniveśitā [24]

In the second chapter, entitled Śrī Śāstra-vacanāmṛtam, The Nectar of Scriptural Word, various scriptural quotations regarding surrender to the Supreme Lord have been compiled.

तृतीयतोऽष्टमं यावत् श्रीभक्तवचनामृते । tṛtīyato 'ṣṭamaṁ yāvat, śrī-bhakta-vacanāmṛte prapattiḥ ṣaḍ-vidhā proktā, bhāgavata-gaṇoditā [25]

Chapters three to eight inclusive are entitled Śrī Bhakta-vacanāmṛtam, Words of Nectar from the Devotees. Beautifully expressed by the lotus lips of the pure devotees of the Lord, many stanzas describing the six limbs of exclusive surrender are quoted therein.

आनुकूल्यस्य सङ्कल्पः प्रातिकूल्य-विवर्जनम् ।
रक्षिष्यतीति विश्वासो गोप्तृत्वे वरणं तथा ॥ २६ ॥ आत्मनिक्षेप कार्पण्ये षड्विधा शरणागतिः ।

ātma-nikṣepa kārpaṇye, ṣaḍ-vidhā śaraṇāgatiḥ evaṁ paryyāyataś cāsminn, ekaikādhyāya-saṅgrahaḥ [27]*

These six chapters have been compiled, each consecutively dealing with the six limbs of surrender, which are as follows:

1. To accept everything favourable for devotion to Kṛṣṇa
2. To reject everything unfavourable for devotion to Kṛṣṇa
3. To be confident that Kṛṣṇa will grant His protection

4. To embrace Kṛṣṇa's guardianship
5. To offer oneself unto Him
6. To consider oneself lowly and bereft

In the ninth chapter entitled Śrī Bhagavad-vacanāmṛtam, Words of Nectar from the Supreme Lord, nectarean stanzas emanating directly from the lotus mouth of the Supreme Lord have been compiled.

Prior to each stanza quoted, an aphorism illuminating its inner purport has been carefully entered according to my best insight.

Being revealed by the Lord Himself adopting the heart of a devotee, the stanzas of pure nectar emanating from the moon of Śrī Gaurācandra have been entered along with the stanzas of the devotees.

prapattyā saha cānanya-, bhakter naikatya-hetutaḥ ananya-bhakti-sambandham, bahu-vākyaṃ ihoddhṛtam [32]

Many expressions of exclusive devotion (ananya-bhakti) have been recorded herein, since exclusive devotion is most intimately related to surrender.

bhagavad-bhakta-śāstrānām, sambandho 'sti parasparam tat tat prādhānyato nāmnām, prabheda-karaṇam smṛtam [33]

Actually, Words of Nectar from the Supreme Lord, Words of Nectar from the Devotees, and The Nectar of Scriptural Word are all seen to be interrelated. Still, they have been portrayed separately due to their individual importance.

*praty-adhyāya-viśeṣas tu, tatra tatraiva vakṣyate

The unique characteristic of each chapter will be accordingly expressed therein. Now (in this respect), we may have some general deliberation, in the line of the great devotees of the Lord.

vastu-nirṇayah—

bhagavad-bhaktiḥ sarvvaṃ, ity utsrjya vidher api kainkaryyaṃ kṛṣṇa-pādaikā-, śrayatvaṃ śaraṇāgatiḥ [35]

Theme of the work—

Being governed by the faith that all success is achieved by serving the Supreme Lord, to abandon servitude to even scriptural injunctions and take exclusive refuge in the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa in every time, place, and circumstance, is known as śaraṇāgati—unconditional surrender.

सर्वान्तर्यामितां दृष्ट्वा हरेः सम्बन्धतोऽखिले । अपृथग्भावतद्दृष्टिः प्रपत्तिर्ज्ञानभक्तितः ॥ ३६ ॥

sarvāntaryāmitāṃ dr̥ṣṭvā, hareḥ sambandhato 'khile apṛthag-bhāva-tad-dr̥ṣṭiḥ, prapattir jñāna-bhaktiḥ [36]

Some consider śaraṇāgati to be that God consciousness which is realization of the one non-differentiated nature in all beings and objects, by seeing the Supreme Lord as the indwelling Supersoul of everything. However, such a conception falls within the category of calculative devotion (jñāna-bhakti). It is not in the line of unadulterated pure devotion (śuddha-bhakti).

नित्यत्वञ्चैव शास्त्रेषु प्रपत्तेर्ज्ञायते बुधैः । अप्रपन्नस्य नृजन्मवैफल्योक्तेस्तु नित्यता ॥ ३७ ॥

nityatvañ caiva śāstreṣu, prapatter jñāyate budhaiḥ aprapannasya nṛ-janma-, vaiphalyoktes tu nityatā [37]

By scriptural reference, the learned know of the eternality of surrender to the Lord, since the futility of human life without that surrender is elucidated therein. In this way, the eternal constitution of surrender is established.

नान्यदिच्छन्ति तत्पादरजःप्रपन्नवैष्णवाः । किञ्चिदपीति तत् तस्याः साध्यत्वमुच्यते बुधैः ॥ ३८ ॥

nānyad icchanti tat pāda-, rajaḥ-prapanna-vaiṣṇavāḥ kiñcid apīti tat tasyāḥ, sādhyatvam ucyate budhaiḥ [38]

Because the devotees who have surrendered unto the dust of the lotus feet of the Lord never aspire for anything else whatsoever, the learned affirm that surrender is the attainable goal of all endeavours.

भवदुःखविनाशश्च परनिस्तारयोग्यता ।

परं पदं प्रपत्यैव कृष्णसम्प्राप्तिरेव च ॥ ३९ ॥

bhava-duḥkha-vināśaś ca, para-nistāra-yogyatā param padaṁ prapattyaiiva, kṛṣṇa-sampṛāptir eva ca [39]

Only by surrender to the Lord can one gain freedom from the miseries of birth, death, disease, and infirmity; fitness to deliver others from those miseries; the holy abode of Lord Viṣṇu; and the devotional service of Lord Kṛṣṇa.

श्रवणकीर्तनादीनां भक्त्यङ्गानां हि याजने ।

अक्षमस्यापि सर्व्वाप्तिः प्रपत्यैव हराविति ॥ ४० ॥

śravaṇa-kīrtanādīnām, bhakty-āṅgānām hi yājane akṣamasyāpi sarvāptiḥ, prapattyaiiva harāv iti [40]

Everything is accomplished by surrendering unto the lotus feet of Śrī Hari, even for one who is unable to execute the integral practices of devotional service based on hearing and chanting.

सख्यरसाश्रितप्राया सेति केचित् वदन्ति तु ।

माधुर्यादौ प्रपन्नानां प्रवेशो नास्ति चेति न ॥ ४१ ॥ sakhya-rasāśrita-prāyā, seti kecit vadanti tu mādhuryyādau prapannānām, praveśo nāsti ceti na [41]

Some claim that surrender is generally in the relationship of friendship (sakhya-rasa). But it is complete fallacy to think that surrendered souls have no entrance into divine relationships headed by consortherhood (madhura-rasa).

सकृत् प्रवृत्तिमात्रेण प्रपत्तिः सिध्यतीति यत् । लोभोत्पादनहेतोस्तदालोचन-प्रयोजनम् ॥ ४२ ॥

sakṛt pravṛtti-mātreṇa, prapattiḥ sidhyatīti yat lobhotpādana-hetos tad, ālocana-prayojanam [42]

Since surrender is achieved by turning to the refuge of the Lord just once, we should earnestly discuss the subject to enable the longing for surrender to be born in us.

अपि तदानुकूल्यादि-सङ्कल्पाद्यङ्गलक्षणात् । तदनुशीलनीयत्वमुच्यते हि महाजनैः ॥ ४३ ॥ api tad ānukūlyādi-, saṅkalpādy-aṅga-lakṣṇāt tad anuśilanīyatvam, ucyate hi mahājanaiḥ [43]

Furthermore, since the constituent parts of surrender—based on acceptance of the favourable and rejection of the unfavourable—have been referred to by authorities and cited in the Scriptures, the great devotees of the Lord teach us the necessity of studying and culturing the art of surrender.

भवार्त्तिपीड्यमानो वा भक्तिमात्राभिलाष्यपि । bhavārṭti-pīḍyamāno vā, bhakti-mātrābhilāṣyapi vaimukhya-bādhyamāno 'nya-, gatis tac charaṇam vrajet [44]

One who is severely afflicted by fear of living in the material world, or, one who, despite having an aspiration for the Lord's service is nonetheless bound with adversity—such persons, finding no alternative, surrender to the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

आश्रयान्तरराहित्ये वान्याश्रयविसर्जने । अनन्यगतिभेदस्तु द्विविधः परिकीर्तितः ॥ ४५ ॥

āśrayāntara-rāhitye, vānyāśraya-visarjjane ananya-gati-bhedas tu, dvi-vidhaḥ parikīrtitaḥ [45]

The state of finding no other alternative occurs in two ways: in the event of having no other shelter, or in the event of abandoning one's existing shelter.

मनोवाक्कायभेदाच्च त्रिविधा शरणागतिः । तासां सर्वाङ्गसम्पन्ना शीघ्रं पूर्णफलप्रदा ।

tāsām sarvāṅga-sampannā, śīghram pūrṇa-phala-pradā nyūnādhikyena caitāsām, tāratamyam phale 'pi ca [46]*

One surrenders by thought, word, and deed. Complete surrender in all these aspects promptly affords full success. Otherwise, the fruit attained will be proportionate to the degree of one's surrender.

*vināśya sarva-duḥkhāni, nija-mādhuryya-varṣanam

The unprecedented, gracious reward of surrender—

Being most affectionate toward His surrendered souls, the Supreme Lord totally dispells their unhappiness, graciously filling their hearts with His sweet absolute presence.

अप्यसिद्धं तदीयत्वं विना च शरणागतिम् । apy asiddham tadīyatvam, vinā ca śaranāgatim ity apūrvva-phalatvam hi, tasyāḥ śamsanti paṇḍitāh [48]

Without unconditional surrender (śaranāgati), one cannot conceive of oneself as 'belonging to Him.' And this is why the learned sing (par excellence) the glories of surrender's ability to yield her unprecedented, gracious fruit.

अथवा बहुभिरेतैरुक्तिभिः किं प्रयोजनम् ।

*athavā bahubhir etair, uktibhiḥ kiṁ prayojanam

Otherwise, what would have been the need for so abundantly singing her praises? Only by unconditional surrender unto the lotus feet of Govinda is all perfection attained—nothing remains to be attained.

CHAPTER 2

श्रीशास्त्रवचनामृतम्

Śrī-Śāstra-vacanāmṛtam

The Nectar of Scriptural Word

śruti-smṛty-ādi-śāstreṣu, prapattir yan nirūpyate tad uktam dvitīyādhyāye, śrī-śāstra-vacanāmṛte [1]

This second chapter, Śrī Śāstra-vacanāmṛtam, The Nectar of Scriptural Word, describes surrender as corroborated in the Revealed Scriptures headed by the Vedas (Śruti) and the Religious Codes (Smṛti).

प्रपत्तिः श्रुतौ—

यो ब्रह्माणं विदधातिपूर्वं यो ब्रह्मविद्यां
तस्मै गाः पालयति स्म कृष्णः ।

तं हि देवमात्मवृत्तिप्रकाशं

मुमुक्षुर्वै शरणममुं व्रजेत् ॥ २ ॥

तापन्यां (ब्रः सं, टीका)

prapattiḥ śrutau—

yo brahmāṇam vidadhāti-pūrvam yo brahma-vidyām tasmai gāḥ pālayati sma kṛṣṇaḥ

taṁ hi devam ātma-vṛtti-prakāśam

mumukṣur vai śaraṇam amuṁ vrajet [2]

Tāpanyām (Br: Saṁ, ṭikā)

Surrender is firmly established by the Vedas—

In the beginning of creation, He who created the universal creator, Brahmā, and then imparted to Brahmā knowledge of Brahman, the Absolute—He is the selfsame Lord Kṛṣṇa who tends the cows (or nourishes the Vedas [gāḥ means both ‘cows’ and Vedas]). Those desirous of liberation should surrender unto that Lord, who reveals the innate function of the soul.

तादात्म्ययाथार्थ्यं स्मृतौ—

अहङ्कृतिर्मकारः स्यान्नकारस्तन्निषेधकः ।

तस्मात्तु नमसा क्षेत्रिखातन्त्र्यं प्रतिषिध्यते ॥ ३ ॥

ahaṅkṛtir ma-kārah syān, na-kāras tan niṣedhakah tasmāt tu namaśa kṣetri-, svātantryam pratiśidhyate [3] bhagavat-paratanthro 'sau, tad āyattātma-jīvanah tasmāt sua-sāmarthya-vidhim, tyajet sarvum aśeṣataḥ [4]

Pādma-uttara-khaṇḍa

The cause of the tangible reality of surrender is expounded in the Standard Codes of Religion (Smṛti)—

The syllable ma means 'self-asserting ego' (the misconception of considering oneself to be a 'doer'), and the syllable na indicates its prevention. Thus, the act of offering obeisances (namaḥ) nullifies the offerer's independence. The soul is naturally subordinate to the Almighty, his intrinsic nature and innate function being servitude to the Supreme Lord. Therefore, all actions performed thinking, 'I am the doer,' should be utterly abandoned.

अहङ्कारादप्रपत्तिः—

अहङ्कारनिवृत्तानां केशवो नहि दूरगः ।

ब्रः वैः

ahaṅkārād-aprapattiḥ—

ahaṅkāra-nivṛttānām, keśavo nahi dūragah ahaṅkāra-yutānām hi, madhye parvata-rāśayah [5]

Br: Vai:

The only obstacle to surrender is self-asserting ego—

The Supreme Lord Keśava remains in the company of persons who are free from a mundane conception of life; but there appears to be a great mountain range between the self-asserting egotists and the Lord.

अद्वयज्ञानमनाश्रितानामेव जगद्दर्शनम्—

Bhā: 3/9/9

Persons who do not take shelter of the One without a second, the Supreme Lord, simply loiter in the world of birth and death—

O Lord, Soul of all souls, the conditioned soul sees this universe as separate from You, and thinks it is meant for his sense enjoyment. But this is only a creation of Your deluding potency (māyā). As long as the living being clings to such an illusory separate interest, he does not give up the miserable world of action and reaction, birth and death, despite its utter meaninglessness.

तन्नित्यत्वम्, तदभावे आत्मनो वञ्चितत्वात्— prāpyāpi durllabhatarāṁ, mānuṣyaṁ vibudhepsitam yair āśrito na govindas, tair ātmā vañcitaś ciram [7]

Br: Vai:

The unsurrendered soul is perpetually deceived; thus, the state of surrender is eternal—

A birth in the human species is so valuable that it is aspired for by the demigods. Those who, despite having taken such a birth, do not take shelter of the lotus feet of Govinda—they deceive themselves perpetually.

अप्रपन्नानां जीवनवैफल्याच्च—

Br: Vai:

The utter futility of life without surrender—

After wandering throughout 8,400,000 species, the soul eventually takes a human birth. But that human birth is rendered worthless by those miserable fellows who are so proud of their bodies that they refuse to take shelter of the lotus feet of Lord Govinda.

Even the lowest of men are liberated by surrender—

O twice-born, persons who are devoid of all virtuous practices, who are outcaste, rogues, deceitful, audacious, egotistic, addicted to intoxicants, hotbeds of sin, malicious, cruel-natured, grossly infatuated with son, wife, wealth, etc.—even such extremely fallen persons are liberated by surrendering unto the lotus feet of Śrī Govinda.

A surrendered soul never falls down—

Śrī Govinda is the origin of all the universes, the Supreme Truth, and the shelter of all. One who surrenders unto His lotus feet can never be cast asunder.

Surrender unto the Supreme Lord Hari vanquishes misery and charms the heart with the Lord's divine sweetness—

O King, what more can I say? The foremost of the Yadu dynasty, the unassailable great personality who is full of goodwill for you and always your dear friend—He is none other than the Supreme Lord Nārāyaṇa, Śrī Hari. Those who devotedly take full refuge in Him cross over this insurmountable ocean of material existence.

Completely vanquishing all fear, surrender bestows the life of eternal nectar—

The Lord of the Goddess of Fortune bears a conchshell, disc, lotus flower, and bow; He is the Master of Garuḍa, He is the vanquisher of the fear of mundane existence, He is the bestower of all benedictions. No trace of apprehension remains for those who take refuge in Him, since they qualify for positive immortality.

Br: Nā:

A surrendered soul is successful in all endeavours—

In the dense darkness of this material world which is engulfed in ignorance and sleep, those who surrender unto the holy lotus feet of Lord Hari are successful in all their endeavours. Of this there is no doubt.

अजितेन्द्रियाणामपि शिवदत्वम्—

By surrender, even persons of uncontrolled senses attain all good fortune—

The lotus feet of Lord Hari vanquish material existence. By surrendering unto His lotus feet, nothing remains difficult to achieve, even for a person of agitated mind.

Bhā: 3/22/37

All worldly suffering is vanquished for the surrendered soul—

O Vidura, how can a person who has taken shelter of the lotus feet of Śrī Hari be stricken with bodily and mental tribulation arising from the elements, other persons, or unfavourable astrological circumstances?

शरणागतानामयत्नसिद्धमेव परं पदम्—

Bhā: 10/14/58

The Supreme Abode of Lord Viṣṇu is effortlessly attainable for the surrendered souls—

This ocean of material existence is as insignificant as the water in a cow's hoofprint to those persons who have taken full refuge in the supreme shelter—the boat of the lotus feet of Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa, whose glories are universally sung as purity's own self. Their destination is the Lord's supreme abode, never this mundane abode of calamities.

Bhā: 2/7/42

The illusion of bodily identification and mundane possessiveness is dispelled for the souls surrendered to the Lord in all respects—

Due to their taking shelter of His lotus feet in all respects, those persons upon whom the Infinite Supreme Lord bestows His unre-served grace surpass the insurmountable illusory energy of the Lord. He does not favour those who ascribe the conceptions of 'I and mine' to this material body, which is food for jackels and hounds.

Bhā: 7/9/19

For persons devoid of a relationship with the Supreme Lord Hari, prevention of suffering cannot but be transitory—

O Nṛsimha, O Almighty Lord, precautions and remedies are only short-lived when attempted by the suffering embodied souls who are not favoured by You. Parents are not the guardians of their child, medicine is not the cure for the diseased, and a boat is not the saviour of a man drowning in the ocean.

Bhā: 3/9/6

The various tribulations of the unsundered souls are simply due to their obsession with the unreal—

○ Lord, as long as the people of the world do not take the safe and sound shelter of Your lotus feet, they remain full of anxiety about their wealth, their bodies, and their friends; overwhelmed with lamentation, hankering, obsession, and intense greed, they cannot obtain relief from the suffering which is deeply rooted in their imaginary conceptions of 'I and mine.'

Bhā: 6/9/22

One should take refuge in the fully self-satisfied Supreme Lord Hari; the shelter of 'other gods' yields a lamentably inferior result—

Lord Kṛṣṇa is perfectly replete in everything desirable, fully self-sufficient, poised and tranquil. Nothing can be astonishing for Him. Only a fool disregards Him to take shelter in any demigod whose propitiation may be prescribed for the accomplishment of worldly benefits. Such a person may be compared to one who siezes a dog's tail in order to cross the ocean.

Bhā: 2/4/18

Only Śrī Hari is capable of delivering the living being in all circumstances—

Persons such as those belonging to the races known as Kirāta, Hūṇa, Andhra, Pulinda, Pukkaśa, Ābhīra, Śuhma (Kaṅka), Yavana, and Khaśa—nay, persons of each and every sinful birth are perfectly purified without a doubt, by taking shelter of the devotees surrendered to Lord Viṣṇu, the Almighty. I do offer my respectful obeisances unto Him.

Bhā: 11/29/3

Only surrendered souls can properly distinguish substance from form; those who disregard Lord Hari to seek happiness on the empirical paths based on yoga and karmma are simply on a suicidal course—

O lotus-eyed one, the swans (topmost pure devotees, parama-hamsas) take refuge in Your ecstasy-yielding lotus feet. O Universal Lord, those who do not accept the joy of the shelter of Your lotus feet and pursue the paths of abstract liberation and mundane acquisition—such persons are devastated by Your deluding potency.

Bhā: 10/16/37

Full refuge in the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa is the supreme objective—

Those souls who have taken refuge in the dust of Your lotus feet have no desire to attain heaven, universal dominion, the post of Lord Brahmā, sovereignty over the earth, yogic perfections, or liberation.

Souls surrendered unto the lotus feet of the Lord Hari are competent to deliver others, and the fully self-satisfied souls also surrender to the Lord's lotus feet—

The slightest association with the supremely tranquil sages who have surrendered unto the lotus feet of the Lord purifies the people of the world; but the river Gaṅgā purifies only those who bathe in it.

Those souls who have exclusively surrendered unto Kṛṣṇa are not subservient to scriptural injunctions and prohibitions—

O King, one who abandons all worldly obligations and wholeheartedly surrenders unto Mukunda, the exclusive shelter of all beings in every respect—such a person is no longer indebted to the demigods, sages, other life-forms, friends and relatives, mankind, and ancestors.

The recipients of the Lord's mercy are transcendental to Vedic religiosity—

Because of the intense love of His surrendered soul, the Supreme Lord bestows His grace upon that devotee by ushering divine inspiration into his heart. Such a devotee then abandons the preoccupation with adhering to worldly obligations and Vedic religiosity.

As the epitome of divine ecstasy (rasa), the Supreme Lord's original form—Kṛṣṇa—is the highest refuge—

In the tenth canto of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Śrī Kṛṣṇa has been distinguished as the embodiment of shelter for the surrendered souls. I bow down unto that supreme refuge of the universe, who is known as 'Kṛṣṇa.'

The matchless, unsurpassable gift of surrender unto the lotus feet of Lord Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, the Golden Avatāra who enacts His pastimes as a great devotee—

○ guardian of the surrendered, ○ great personality (the Supreme Personality of Godhead Himself, who enacts His divine pastimes as a pure devotee [mahā-bhāgavata]), You alone are the reality to be constantly meditated upon by the pure souls. You are the destroyer of the soul's illusion, You are the divine wish-fulfilling tree, the refuge of all devotees. Worshipable by Śiva and Viriñci (Sādāśiva in the form of Śrī Advaita Ācāryya, and Brahmā in the form of Haridāsa Ṭhākura), You are the shelter of all and everything, and You are the dispeller of Your devotee's suffering which originates in offences to the holy name (nāma-aparādha). You are the only boat for crossing the ocean of this material world of suffering. I do worship Your holy lotus feet.

The souls surrendered unto the lotus feet of Śrī Caitanya-deva bathe in the ocean of divine love—

If you have a desire to cross the ocean of material existence, an aspiration to taste the ecstasy of the nectarean congregational chanting of the holy names (saṅkīrttana), and a longing to sport in the ocean of divine love—then please surrender unto the lotus feet of Śrī Caitanyacandra.

Vaiṣṇava-tantra

Six divisions of surrender—

Acceptance of the favourable, rejection of the unfavourable, the faith that ‘He will surely protect me,’ embracing the Lord’s guardianship, complete dependence on Him, and the perception of one’s utter helplessness without Him—these six are the essential limbs of exclusive surrender to the Lord (śaraṇāgati).

Vaiṣṇava-tantra

Śaraṇāgati should be practiced in thought, word, and deed—

By his power of speech, the surrendered soul declares, 'I am Yours'; in his thoughts, he knows the same; and in person, he takes refuge in the Lord's holy abode. In this way the surrendered soul passes his life, his heart filled with joy.

Of everything favourable, Hari-saṅkīrttana performed by souls surrendered unto the lotus feet of Lord Hari is paramount—

May the Śrī Kṛṣṇa Saṅkīrttana be all-victorious in its pristine glory! This congregational chanting of the holy names of the Lord cleanses the looking-glass of consciousness, extinguishes the raging forest fire of material existence, and spreads the benediction moon-rays that cause the lotus of the heart to bloom. This chanting is the life and soul of divine consorhood. Expanding the ocean of pure ecstasy, it is the flavour of full nectar at every moment, bathing and cooling the entire self.

Knowing Kṛṣṇa and His name to be identical truth, one embraces exclusively the holy name's path;

and thus who is initiated into chanting the name properly should be mentally respected as a member of the family.

And he who serves Kṛṣṇa by constant worship of the name, within his heart e'er residing at Śrī Vṛndāvana Dhāma—know him an intermediate devotee, make obeisance at his feet and keep him as a faithful friend in your thought and deed.

And who, by internal service to the name, knows his divine identity, sees Kṛṣṇa, only Kṛṣṇa in every form and entity;

seeing nothing separate from Kṛṣṇa in the entire creation,

he sees all souls equally serving Kṛṣṇa's predilection—know such a veteran votary most honoured and most cherished, serve him in thought, word, and deed, with heart's fulfillment relished:

with obeisance, inquiry, service, him in all respects entreat—

by the grace of such a great soul we can reach Lord Kṛṣṇa's feet.

কৃষ্ণভক্ত যাহা করে তদনুসরণে । ভক্তিমান্ আচরয় জীবনে মরণে ॥
এই হয় জন হয় ভক্তি অধিকারী । বিশ্বের মঙ্গল করে ভক্তি পরচারি ॥৫॥

Within, without, he who serves with (i) enthusiasm will gradually attain to the rarest pure devotion.

In devotion to Lord Kṛṣṇa, one who has (ii) firm faith is a person loyal and devoted on the path.

And if Śrī Kṛṣṇa's service he fails to attain, yet practices with (iii) patience—devout is such a man.

(iv) That which serves Lord Kṛṣṇa, for only Kṛṣṇa's pleasure, in such action, the devotee can never feel anger.

(v) Abandoning the company of the non-devotee, ever with devotees, the devout serve Śrī Hari.

(vi) Following the pure devotees' direction on the path, the true devout practice, as a matter of life and death.

Who follow these six qualities qualify for pure devotion—they purify the universe by their preaching mission.

Only renunciation in devotion (yukta-vairāgya) is favourable—

A person with genuine insight will accept only as much facility as needed to fulfill his personal necessity. Over- or under-acceptance of one's due measure may cause a fall from spiritual practices.

Śrīmad-Uddhavaśya

Within renunciation in devotion (yukta-vairāgya), the foremost principle is to see everything in relationship to Lord Kṛṣṇa (Kṛṣṇa-sambandha-jñāna)—

Adorned with the articles that have been offered to You, such as garlands, fragrant clothing, and ornaments, we, Your personal servitors who partake of Your holy remnants alone, will certainly be able to conquer Your illusory energy (māyā).

The fundamental objective is to maintain constant remembrance of Śrī Hari in every time, place and circumstance—

If persons engaged in the devotional service of Lord Hari are unable to obtain food and shelter despite their attempts, or if their acquisitions are lost or destroyed, they should, without anxiety, absorb their hearts deeply in the thought of Lord Hari.

This is accomplished only when one can see the grace of the Supreme Lord in every situation—

One who, in the hope of achieving Your grace, goes on enduring the inauspicious fruit of his own karma, and passes his days practising devotion unto You in every thought, word, and deed—such a person is heir to the land of freedom: he attains to the plane of positive immortality.

Only by the association of pure devotees (sādhu-saṅga) is everything happily achieved—

The attainment of heaven or liberation cannot even slightly compare with the immeasurable fortune gained by the association of an associate of the Supreme Lord. What, then, can be said of the petty dominion and assets of mortal men?

Śrī-Yāmunācāryasya

An earnest aspiration to achieve perfection in devotional service—

Śrī-Yāmunācāryasya

The aspiration to attain to the perfection of becoming an associate servitor of the Lord—

O my Lord, please lead me into the glance of those great devotees who, in their heart's aspiration to only once behold Your divine form, consider sense enjoyment and liberation to be like straw, and whose separation is unbearable for even You.

Śrī-Bilvamaṅgalasya*

The realization of the nature of unconditional devotion—

O Supreme Lord, if our devotion for You were more steadfast, Your adolescent form would naturally arise (appear) within our hearts. Then (there would not be the slightest necessity to pray for the triple pursuits of religiosity, gain, and sensual desire [dharmma, artha, kāma], and their negation in the form of liberation [mukti], because) mukti will personally attend us (as a concomitant subsidiary fruit of devotion, in the form of deliverance from ignorance), her hands cupped in prayer (like a preordained maidservant); and the fruits of bhukti (transitory pleasure culminating in attainment of heaven) will eagerly await their orders (from us, should any necessity arise for them in the service of Your lotus feet).

Śrī-Raghupati-Upādhyāyasya

The superexcellence of devotion in the mood of Vṛndāvana—

Of persons afraid of material existence, some worship the Śruti Scriptures (Vedas), some worship the Smṛti Scriptures (supplementary Religious Codes), and others worship the Mahābhārata. But as

The path to devotion in the Vṛndāvana conception—

কৃষ্ণ নাম, রূপ, গুণ, লীলা চতুষ্টয় । গুরুমুখে শুনিলেই কীর্তন উদয় ॥
কীর্তিত হইলে ক্রমে স্মরণাস পায় । কীর্তন স্মরণকালে ক্রমপথে ধায় ॥

When Kṛṣṇa's name, form, nature, and pastimes divine, are heard from Śrī Gurudeva, one's heart awakes in song.
As pure chanting ensues, remembrance is attained;
thus chanting and remembering, step-by-step ascent is gained.

Those engaging tongue and mind, who begin to relish nectar:

Reside always in Vraja, within the heart's devotion . . .

Higher than Vaikunṭha is Mathurā city, since there occurred the Advent of Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra Hari.
 Better than Mathurā is Vṛndāvana, the holy place where Lord Hari enjoyed the joyous dance of amorous grace.
 Above Vṛndāvana Dhāma is Govarddhana Hill, the lifter of the Hill, and His Consort, there did intimately revel.
 Even higher than Govarddhana Hill is the banks of Rādhā-kuṇḍa that the Sweetheart of Gokula overflows sweet love abound.
 Who would select for his worship, any other place, disregarding this sacred pond at Govarddhana's base?
 Such a foolish fellow surely can't be found!
 The highest abode of love divine is the banks of Rādhā-kuṇḍa.

Duty, knowledge, penance, meditation—
all are really exploitation:

none can free us from action and reaction;

Cast them all aside, O my brother, sing the glory of good faith, our mother

*bhagavad-bhaktayor bhakteḥ, prapatteḥ pratikūlake

The principle to reject everything opposed to the service of the Lord and His devotee, and to similarly abstain from everything opposed to an attitude of surrender, is known as prātikūlya-vivarjjanam—Rejection of the Unfavourable.

प्रातिकूल्यवर्जनसङ्कल्पार्दशः— mama janmani janmaniśvare, bhavatād bhaktir ahaitukī tvayi [2]*

Śrī-Śrī-Bhagavataś-Caitanyacandrasya

The ideal in the resolve to reject the unfavourable—

O Lord of the universe, I have no desire for wealth or worldly promotion, nor do I desire wife, family, and society, nor do I aspire for Vedic religiosity or mundane scholarship. The only aspiration in my heart is that in my every birth I may have unmotivated devotion for You.

—the Supreme Lord Śrī Caitanyacandra

Śrī-Kulaśekharasya

A similar expression of the same ideal—

O Lord, I have no faith in religiosity, economic development, or sense enjoyment. May all these things come to pass as they are ordained, according to my previous karma. But my earnest prayer is that birth after birth I may have unflinching devotion for Your lotus feet.

—Śrī Kulaśekhara

हरिसम्बन्धहीनं सर्वमेव वर्जनीयम्—

Deva-stutau

Everything devoid of a relationship with Lord Hari should be rejected—

One should not reside wherever the river of nectarean tidings of Kṛṣṇa does not flow, wherever Kṛṣṇa's surrendered devotees cannot be found, and wherever the grand festival of chanting Kṛṣṇa's holy name is not conducted—even if it is heaven.

—prayers by the demigods

Śri-Rṣabhasya

When the traditional guru and guardians are found to be unfavourable, they too must surely be abandoned—

One who cannot save other souls from the world of impending death—that is, one who cannot teach the path of devotion—he cannot be a teacher, although he may be called 'guru'; he cannot be a relative—he is not worthy of the designation; he cannot be a father—he is not qualified to beget a son; she cannot be a mother—she should not bear a child; he cannot be a god—the demigods who cannot deliver others from material bondage are not entitled to accept worship from human society; and he cannot be a husband—his hand is not fit to accept in marriage.

—Śri Rṣabhadeva

Śrī-Kulaśekharasya

The resolve to reject everything unfavourable, by means of all the senses—

○ Mādhave, let me not see the unvirtuous persons who are devoid of devotion for Your lotus feet, and let me not hear the narratives which do not describe Your divine personality. ○ Lord of the universe, may I never have any contact with those bereft of faith in You, and moreover, lifetime after lifetime, may I never be without the company of Your associates who are devoted to Your loving service.

—Śrī Kulaśekhara

Sarvujñasya

One should also be indifferent towards commonly respected objects—

○ Lord, Your devotee sees the ocean to be as insignificant as a palmful of water, the sun as a glow-worm, Mount Sumeru as a pebble, a king as a servant, wish-fulfilling gems as rocks, a desire-yielding tree as wood, worldly aspirations as straw, and he even sees his own body as a trifling weight to carry: he knows all objects unfavourable to devotion as trivia.

- (i) For over-acquisition, one whose mind does always run: avaricious non-devotee—he should thus be known.
- (ii) One who hankers to exploit some object mundane: non-devotee, overendeavourer—as such he is known.
- (iii) One whose tongue speaks all but holy talks of Kṛṣṇa: he is just a gossip of insignificant banter.
- (iv) Apathetic to devotion, skilled in exploitation: so wretched—proud usurper of the higher devotee's position.
- (v) Associates with all except Lord Kṛṣṇa's pure devotees: a mundane socializer in the mud of fleeting fancies.

(vi) Who wanders hither and thither for his own selfish plan:
fickle-minded non-devotee—is known such a man.
In these six ways, never fit to render pure devotion:
bereft of love divine—fallen, materialistic person.

The severe adversity of female companionship—

Alas, for a renunciate who desires to completely cross over the ocean of mundanity and engage in the divine loving service of the Supreme Lord, to ogle a materialist and a woman is more wicked than drinking poison.

yājñika-viprāṇām

Esteem for elevated birth and culture of a person averse to Lord Hari is unfavourable for devotion—

Our three births (seminal, investiture with the sacred thread, and sacrificial [śaukra, sāvītrya, and daiḥṣya]) are condemned, our vow of chastity is condemned, our profuse knowledge of the Scriptures is condemned, our lineage is condemned, and our proficiency in prescribed religious rites is condemned—all is lost, because we have become averse to the transcendental Supreme Lord.

Śrī-Śrī-Bhagavataḥ

The mentality of considering mundane objects to be conscious elements is unfavourable—

One who considers his gross body to be himself, but does not identify himself with a devotee of the Lord; who considers wife, family, and associated paraphernalia to be his possessions, yet does not feel affection or attachment for a devotee of the Lord; who considers a graven image of earth or other substance to be God, yet does not conceive of the worshipping position of a devotee of the Lord; who considers some river or lake to be a holy place of pilgrimage, yet does not perceive a devotee of the Lord to be the abode of divinity incarnate—such a person is an ass among cows: a colossal fool.

 Śrī-Vyāsapādānām*

The offensive mentality of considering worshippingable, conscious divine forms to be mundane or subordinate to mundanity must be totally abandoned—

Anyone who considers the worshippingable Deity to be stone; who considers the Vaiṣṇava Guru to be a mortal man; who considers a Vaiṣṇava to be limited by the confines of caste, lineage, or creed; who considers the holy foot-wash of Lord Viṣṇu or a Vaiṣṇava to be ordinary water; who considers the holy name and mantra of Lord Viṣṇu, which vanquish all sins, to be common sound vibration; and who considers the God of gods, Lord Viṣṇu, to be merely on the level of the demigods—such a person is a diabolical devil.

Śrī-Jadabharatasya

The adversity of all attempts based on austerity, etc.—

O Rahūgaṇa, without one's head being adorned with the dust of the holy feet of a pure devotee, one can never attain devotion for the Supreme Lord by austerity, by Vedic worship and religiosity, by following the vow of monkhood, by following the religious duties of married life, by study and recitation of the Vedas, or by worshipping water, fire, or sun.

Śrī-Nāradasya

The adversity of pursuits based on knowledge (jñāna) and action (karma) devoid of any relationship with the Supreme Lord Hari —

When unadulterated knowledge that is devoid of action and its reactions is never becoming without a devotional relationship with the Infallible Lord, how then will action, which is ill-fated by nature, ever be exalted without being offered to the Almighty, even if it is utterly selfless?

—Śrī Nārada

Śrī-Nāradasya

The futility of sense control by yogic practice—

The agitated mind, repeatedly taken captive by its enemy in the form of depravity rooted in lust and greed, is directly mastered by serving the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Mukunda. It can never be likewise checked or pacified by practising the eightfold yogic discipline, which is generally based on sensual and mental repression [yama, niyama, etc.].

—Śrī Nārada

Śrī-Prahlādasya

Eagerness to attain to the bliss of Brahman must be known as unfavourable to devotion—

O Guru of the universe, now that I can directly behold Your divine form, I reside within the ocean of pure ecstasy. And all other pleasures, including the bliss of merging with Brahman, appear as insignificant as the water in a cow's hoofprint.

‘Why have you suddenly come here?’

‘O lord, because you are always absorbed in thought of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, I have been promoted to the position of your maidservant.’

‘Just keep a little distance from me.’

‘Oh! Why are you so harsh upon an innocent person like me?’

According to Vedic injunction, who acts out his worldly function, that soul takes birth again and again;
 according to my previous action, or Your divine predilection, if another birth for me does remain:
 then just one thing I have to say, O hear me Lord, if You may:
 if within the home of your devotee
 I may be born in an insect body, that cannot but be Your mercy, in my heart I'll be ever happy.
 Devoid of Your devotee's company, in an ignorant non-devotee's family, to be born as even Brahmā, the creator:
 for that, O Lord, I'll never ask You —with folded hands now before You, this is the earnest prayer of Your servitor.

Śrī-Prabodhānandapādānām

The pure devotee who knows the paramount, immaculate nectar of devotion for Śrī Caitanyadeva distrusts all else, even to the point of considering the culture of other spiritual relationships to be opposition—

Let me remain within a cage of blazing fire, but never in the association of persons averse to the holy lotus feet of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu. If I never get even the slightest taste of the nectar of a tiny particle of the pollen of the lotus feet of Śrī Gaurāṅga, my heart has no aspiration for a position in the great spiritual planets headed by Vaikuṅṭha—even if it is mine for the taking.

The tendency to find the dying remnants of personal defects in an exclusive devotee must be abandoned—

For defects in his nature, or defects in his body, one should never disrespect Lord Kṛṣṇa's pure devotee.

If mud, foam, and bubbles appear in Ganges water, it never loses divinity—so says the Scripture.

The devotee of divinity—he does never sin, and if a remnant does remain, soon that too is gone.

The practice of finding faults in others must be abandoned—

To pointlessly judge others is a defect, and therefore such a practice must be abandoned. O Uddhava, you should neither praise nor abuse the nature and actions of others, because you will become preoccupied with falsehood and your best self-interest will be lost.

For the pure devotees who have taken refuge in the mellow of pure devotion in Vṛndāvana, even the reverential service of Lord Nārāyaṇa in Vaikuṅṭha is considered to be as adverse as the aspiration for worldly pleasure or liberation—

Anything but Kṛṣṇa's message, know as falsehood such a passage, such a harlot is so very dangerous:
 devotion to the Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa, rarely gotten by the jīva — that harlot steals away this consciousness.

O dear mind, please hear my prayer:
 And if you hear the presentation of the tigress liberation, all the soul's good prospect she'll devour.

Both temptations please abandon, and not to speak of liberation, curb attraction for the Lord Nārāyaṇa;
 by attraction to that plane, to Vaikuṅṭha you'll be hurled down—denied the chance to live in Śrī Vṛndāvana.

Love for Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa in Vraja, bestows the most precious treasure;
 adore Them in your heart eternally; Rūpa-Raghunātha's feet, for such devotion, does entreat this Bhaktivinoda, bereft, in all humility.

Śrī-Devakyāḥ

The lotus feet of Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa: the only protection for all planes of life—

O Supreme Lord, despite fleeing throughout every planet of the universe out of fear of the black snake of death, the mortal being cannot find a place devoid of fear. But when he is blessed with the fortune of coming to the shelter of Your lotus feet, he becomes reposed with a peaceful heart, and death itself flees from his company.

Faith, even in the face of impending doom, that tidings of Lord Kṛṣṇa (Śrī Hari-kathā) is the only protection—

O pure brāhmaṇas, may you kindly know me as a surrendered soul, and let Mother Ganges accept me as one whose heart is offered to Lord Kṛṣṇa. Let the winged serpent Takṣaka or whatever magical creation has been incited by the son of the brāhmaṇa bite me immediately if it so desires; may you all simply go on singing the glories of the Lord.

The servants of Lord Hari are always protected by Lord Hari—

O wicked mind, fear not the thought of the multifarious, perpetual tortures that are your due. Your enemies—your sins, have no claim over you because the only actual lord and master is the Supreme Lord, Śrīdhara. Give up your apathy, and absorb your thoughts in Lord Nārāyaṇa, who is happily attainable by devotion. For those persons who, bereft of a vessel, have fallen into the ocean of mundane existence; who are being lashed by the hurricane of duality based on mundane attraction and aversion; who are crushed by the burden of protecting wife and family, etc.; who are drowning in the ghastly whirlpool of sensual pleasures—the only shelter is the lifeboat of the holy lotus feet of the Supreme Lord, Viṣṇu.

‘O Kṛṣṇa, please protect me! My dear Lord, kindly accept me as Your own.’

Such a prayer, as well as the prayer to obtain Śrī Kṛṣṇa as one’s lord and master, is the supreme solace to the hearts of the pure devotees, and is known by them as goptṛtve-varanam—Embracing the Lord’s Guardianship. Because it expresses one and the same ideal as unconditional surrender, goptṛtve-varanam is accepted as the chief of the six limbs of surrender.

Śrī-Mucukundasya

For the disturbed soul who is flogged by his six enemies, only the shelter of the lotus feet of his natural Master awards him immortality in fearlessness and sorrowlessness—

O Supreme Soul, for time immemorial in this material world I have been tormented with sin, stung with remorse, and constantly harassed by my six insatiable enemies (the five senses and the mind). O gracious awarder of shelter, somehow I have come before Your holy lotus feet, which are the embodiment of fearlessness, sorrowlessness, and positive immortality. My Master, please protect this one distressed.

A realization of the fact that the surrendered soul who discovers his eternal identity and denounces his perversity caused by the association of lust, anger, greed, madness, delusion, and hatred, is rescued forever from all evil pursuits by the devotional service of Lord Kṛṣṇa—

O Lord, for so long have I obeyed the unending, wicked dictates of lust, anger, greed, madness, delusion, and hatred, but they never took pity upon me, and I have felt neither shame nor the desire to abandon them. O Lord of the Yadus, after all this, I am leaving them behind. At last I have found my genuine sanity: I am surrendered wholly unto Your lotus feet, which are the abode of fearlessness. Please now engage me as Your personal servitor.

The pure devotional service rendered by the great liberated souls: complete refuge in the holy name of the Lord, as sought after by all the Vedas—

The acme of all the Vedas, the Upaniṣads, are like a string of transcendental jewels. The tips of the toes of Your lotus feet, O Holy Name, are eternally worshipped by the radiance emanating from those jewels. You are constantly worshipped by the great liberated souls (headed by Nārada and Śuka, whose hearts are reposed in complete absence of worldly aspirations). To summarily offer everything—from body and its paraphernalia up to pure soul—unto the lotus feet of Śrī Hari, is known as ātma-nikṣepaḥ, or Full Self-surrender. All selfish pursuits are abandoned and every endeavour is for Kṛṣṇa alone, and that too, up to the point of completely depending on Kṛṣṇa for one's personal means and ends. Having thus cast oneself unto the holy lotus feet of one's Lord, one can never be swayed from that position, and he engages in pure devotional service with all his heart forever.

keśāñcit

Self-dedication as self-sacrifice—

Of one who, out of love for Kṛṣṇa, has 'died to live' exclusively for the Lord's service, who is devoid of attachment for any other objective, and who is free from egotism—his Godly mentality (or absence of pursuit for personal pleasure, in quest of the Lord's pleasure) is known as ātma-nivedana, full self-sacrifice.

—revered votary

iśvarasya tu sāmartyān, nālabhyaṁ tasya vidyate

tasmin nyasta-bharaḥ śete, tat karmaiva samācaret [5]

Śrī-Vyāśapādānām

Faith in the infinite capacity of the Lord is to be found within such dedication—

Due to His unlimited capacity, nothing whatsoever is unattainable for the Supreme Lord. Thus, to be devoid of self-endeavour, by completely depending upon Him, is to factually execute the purpose of the Lord.

—Śrī Vyāśadeva

तद्यन्त्रमेवात्मानमनुभवति—

yat kṛtaṁ yat kariṣyāmi, tat sarvaṁ na mayā kṛtam

tvayā kṛtaṁ tu phala-bhuk, tvam eva madhusūdana [6]

Śrī-Kulaśekharaśya

The dedicated soul perceives that he is merely an instrument in the hands of the Supreme Lord—

O Madhusūdana, whatever I have done and whatever I will do, nothing is my endeavour. It is all done by You, and You alone are the enjoyer of the fruit.

—Śri Kulaśekhara

*kenāpi devena hṛdi sthitena

Gautamiya-tantre

Hypocrisy cannot show its face in the light of such a heart's revelation—

As I am engaged by a Deity within my heart, so do I act.

—Gautamiya-tantra

Śri-Vyāsapādānām

Within such surrender there is no other conception but Govinda in every thought, word, and deed—

I know, worship, and remember no one but the Lord Paramānanda, Mukunda, Madhusūdana, Govinda.

—Śri Vyāsadeva

सर्वत्रैवाभीष्टदेव-दर्शनम्—

keṣāñcit

Indeed, one's worshipful Deity is seen everywhere—

Nṛsimha is here, Nṛsimha is there—Nṛsimha is wherever I go. Nṛsimha is outside, Nṛsimha is within my heart. I am surrendered unto that primeval Lord Nṛsimha.

Śrī-Prahlādasya

Full self-surrender is the whole purport of the Vedas—

The pursuits of religiosity, prosperity, and sensual enjoyment have been delineated as the three ends of human existence. They include the sciences of self-knowledge, elevation, and logic, the principles of government, and various methods of livelihood such as farming, etc. All these pursuits are advocated by those sections of the Vedas dealing with trimodal matters, and therefore I consider them to be transient. On the other hand, I know self-dedication unto the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the dear well-wisher of the soul, to be the only factual reality propounded by the Vedas.

—Śrī Prahlāda

The pathway to self-dedication—

The perpetrator of thousands of offences, fallen into the terrible ocean of material existence, I have no shelter but You. O Lord Hari, please graciously accept this surrendered soul as one of Your own.

—Śrī Yāmunācāryya

Some consider bodily dedication to be self-dedication—

As one is indifferent to the upkeep of a sold animal, there will similarly be no cause to be concerned for the upkeep of one's body when it has been offered unto the lotus feet of Śrī Hari.

The transcendental, pure soul's realization of his capacity to offer himself unto the Lord—

However I may be materially designated, however my character may be known—now, O Lord, this whole sense of ego is offered by me unto Your holy lotus feet.

Śrī-Śrī-Bhagavataś-Caitanyacandrasya

The vivid revelation of the treasure within the identity of pure ego in self-dedication—

I am not a priest, a king, a merchant, or a labourer (brāhmaṇa, kṣatriya, vaiśya, śūdra); nor am I a student, a householder, a retired householder, or a mendicant (brahmacārī, gr̥hastha, vānaprastha, sannyāsī). I identify myself only as the servant of the servant of the servant of the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the Lord of the Gopīs, who is the personification of the fully expanded (eternally self-revealing) nectarean ocean that brims with the totality of divine ecstasy.

All connection with formal religion is severed—

O morning, noon, and evening prayers, may all good be unto you; O daily ablutions, my respects unto you; O demigods, O forefathers, may you forgive me—I cannot follow the injunctions to offer you libations. Wherever I may be, I shall eradicate my sins, constantly contemplating that jewel of the Yadu dynasty, the slayer of Kamsa, and I think this is sufficient for me. What more could I ever want than this?

Awakening of divine affection for Kṛṣṇa proves worldly opinion mere trivia—

The expert moralists may say that I am deluded, the Vedic religionists may insist that I am misled, and my associates may condemn me as uncultured. My own brothers may disrespect me and call me an idiot, the wealthy may say I am mad, and the sharp-witted philosophers may severely criticize me as being a great egotist. Nevertheless, my heart cannot budge in the slightest degree from its aspiration to serve the lotus feet of Śrī Govinda.

Abdicating the much-vaunted throne of monistic bliss, to cast oneself unto the service of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the embodiment of the divine ecstasy of Vṛndāvana, by rolling in the dust of His lotus feet—

Although I am worshipping by the wanderers on the path of monism, and although I have received initiation into ascending the great throne of self-satisfaction, I have been forcibly converted into a maidservant by some deceitful paramour of the Gopīs.

Śrī-Rūpapādānām

Genuine self-dedication is deep attachment for one's Master, considering reward and punishment equally—

○ friend of the needy, whether You chastise me or reward me, in the whole wide world I have no other shelter but You. Whether the thunderbolt strikes or torrents of fresh waters shower down, the Cātaka bird (who drinks only the falling rainwater) perpetually goes on singing the glories of the raincloud.

Śrī-Śrī-Bhagavataś-Caitanyacandrasya

The acme of self-dedication is surrender to the whim of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the paramour of Vṛndāvana—

Kṛṣṇa may warmly embrace this maidservant of His lotus feet, claiming me as His own, or He may break my heart by not appearing before me. He is wayward, and He may exploit me as He wishes, but He will always be the only Lord of my life.

Śrī-Prabodhānandapādānām

The dignity of casting oneself unto the lotus feet of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, the Hero in the divine pastimes of supreme magnanimity—

He makes no distinction between the worthy and the unworthy, and He does not differentiate between Himself and others; He does not consider who should be given to and who should not, and He makes no preparation for an auspicious or inauspicious moment; and He swiftly awards the rarest nectar of pure devotion beginning with hearing about the Lord, beholding Him, making obeisance unto Him, and absorbing one's thoughts in Him—that Supreme Lord Gaurahari is my one and only shelter.

Such an internal sense of heartbreak in the devotees, which causes their remembrance in love, in all circumstances, of the extension of grace from the unequalled and unexcelled ocean of compassion, Śrī Hari, and which characteristically causes them to ever remember their feeling of most lamentable destitution, is known by the learned as kāraṇyam—Surrender in Humility.

Śrī-Śrī-Bhagavataś-Caitanyacandrasya

The holy name of the Lord is the supreme purifier, yet the soul's misfortune is to deny it—

O Lord, Your holy name alone bestows all the good fortune of the soul, and this is why You have revealed Your many different names such as 'Kṛṣṇa' and 'Govinda.' You have offered all Your transcendental potency in your holy name, without initiating any (scriptural or philosophical) hard and fast rules and regulations, concerning time, place, or circumstance, to be observed in chanting it. Dear Lord, in this way You have given Your mercy to the living entity by making Your name so easily available, and yet, my misfortune in the form of offence (nāma-aparādha) does not allow love for that merciful name to be born within my heart.

Dragged by tongue towards a taste, by genital to perversion;
needlessly the belly craves lavish food consumption.

The skin demands luxurious comforts, the ear demands sweet talks;

Śrīmad-Uddhavasya

The Lord is merciful upon even the animals who have exclusively surrendered unto Him—

O Lord Kṛṣṇa, friend of all, in Your form of Lord Rāma, even when the tips of the magnificent crowns of the great gods headed by Lord Brahmā were subjugated before Your lotus feet, You simply showed Your affection for the monkeys. Thus it is no wonder that You are seen to be subordinate to Your exclusive servitors such as Nanda Mahārāja, the Gopīs, Bali, and others.

Śrī-Yāmunācāryyasya

Even to pray for the Lord's servitorship is felt as an impertinence, when the glory of the Lord is realized by His mercy—

Fie on me—an impure, impertinent, hard-hearted, and shameless fellow. O Supreme Personality, simply governed by my whims do I dare to aspire for Your servitorship, a position practically inconceivable to great, powerful personalities like Lord Brahmā, Lord Śiva, and the four Kumāras.

Despite thousands of personal defects, a devotee can never check his desire for the Lord's service—

Uncultured, mean, fickle-minded, envious, ungrateful, proud, subservient to lust, deceitful, hard-hearted, and sinful am I. O Lord, how will I ever be able to cross this insurmountable ocean of misery and attain to the service of Your lotus feet?

Although the Lord is naturally gracious upon the surrendered soul, the surrendered soul considers himself unfit to receive that grace—

O Lord, one who keeps Your pledge in mind and wholly surrenders unto You, declaring, 'I am Yours alone,' is a fit recipient for Your grace. Is it only I who am not included in Your promise?

The realization of feeling oneself to be situated on the outer limit of the unlimitedly merciful Lord's mercy—

O Lord, I was drowning in the fathomless, endless ocean of material existence, and now, after immeasurable time, I have reached the shore—Your Divine Self. And You also have finally obtained the most fit recipient for Your mercy.

A devotee of the Lord naturally considers himself to be lowly, and never does he consider himself a devotee—

O Yādavendra, when I think of Your name, Dīnabandhu—friend of the fallen, I, who am a fallen, feel encouraged. But hearing that You are Bhaktavatsala—affectionate to the devotees, my heart suddenly trembles.

Dhanañjaya

A devotee feels disappointed in the improbability of his ever having a slight relationship with the Supreme Lord who is worshippingable by the great gods headed by Lord Śiva and Lord Brahmā—

O Lord, the demigods headed by four-headed Lord Brahmā are engaged in offering their worshipful prayers unto You; the demigods headed by five-headed Lord Śiva are absorbed in meditation upon You; and the demigods headed by Lord Indra, the performer of a hundred sacrifices, are Your order carriers. O Lord Vāsudeva, who then, are we to You?

Śrī-Prabodhānandapādānām

Seeing the Lord's most munificent descent as Śrī Gaurāṅga who is the bestower of the paramount gift of love divine, the devotee, feeling insatiable desire for the mercy of this Lord, considers himself to be drastically deceived—

Deceived, deceived, no doubt, deceived am I! The whole universe became flooded with the love of Śrī Gaurāṅga, but alas, my fate was not to get even the slightest touch of it.

A person who has attained to the acme of love for Kṛṣṇa appears as one bereft of that love, due to the moment by moment growing insatiable desire to taste it; this indicates love for Kṛṣṇa to be the bestower of the supreme fortune, and the most rarely attained goal of life—

O My companion, I do not have the slightest scent of love for Kṛṣṇa—and yet, I cry. This is only for the purpose of exhibiting my great fortune. Without seeing the lovely face of Kṛṣṇa playing His flute, I worthlessly pass My days, like an insignificant insect.

prāna-sañjīvanam sākṣād-, bhagavad-vacanāmṛtam śrī-bhāgavata-gītādi-, sāstrāc chaṅgrhyate 'tra hi [2]

Herein, collected from the Holy Scriptures headed by Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam and Bhagavad-gītā, are words of nectar directly from the lotus mouth of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. This is the nectar to vanquish all sorrow and darkness for the souls surrendered to the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, and also for those aspiring for exclusive love for Kṛṣṇa. It nourishes the lives of the devotees, pleasing their hearts by fulfilling all their cherished desires for devotional service.

Motivation for sense gratification is the only reason that the worshippers of the many demigods surrender to those gods instead of to Lord Kṛṣṇa—

Persons whose good sense is perverted by some material desire become preoccupied with that desire, and thus they adopt the appropriate rules and regulations to worship 'other gods.'

tatraiva

The elevationists worship 'many gods' due to their ignorance of Śrī Kṛṣṇa's position as the Supreme God of all gods—

I alone am the enjoyer and the Lord of all sacrifices. Those who worship the demigods, considering them to be independent of Me, are known as superficial worshippers (pratīkopāsaka). They do not understand My factual position, and thus due to their fallacious worship they deviate from the truth. When they worship as My expansions the demigods headed by the Sungod, they may ultimately gain an auspicious result.

The cause of such stunted intelligence, evil propensities, and foolishness: the power of illusion (māyā)—

Being merged in māyā, foolish and fallen men dedicated to evil deeds resort to the demoniac mentality and do not surrender to Me.

Only the virtuous soul who rejects both mundane happiness and unhappiness is qualified to worship Lord Kṛṣṇa—

Those virtuous persons whose sins have been destroyed are liberated from illusory happiness and unhappiness, and they worship Me with firm resolve.

tatraiva

Absolute surrender unto the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa is the purpose of knowledge (jñāna); the great soul who realizes this truth is exceedingly rare—

Having passed through many lifetimes of assiduous spiritual practices, by the influence of sādhu-saṅga, the association of saints, one attains to knowledge of My identity, and thus surrenders utterly unto Me. Thereafter, he reaches Me, and realizes that everything without exception is related to Vāsudeva, and thus everything that be is of the nature of Vāsudeva. Such a great soul is exceedingly rare.

A person who has realized his constitutional spiritual nature engages in transcendental devotional service unto the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa; therefore, such devotion is transcendental to the three modes of material nature—

By knowledge of the non-differentiated Absolute Truth, one can achieve self-satisfaction, freedom from lamentation and hankering, and perceive the equality in all beings. And above this, he engages in transcendental devotional service unto Me.

Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the emdodiment of the entire compass of divine mellows, is the absolute source of the undifferentiated Brahman that the liberationists desire to merge into as the fourth state of the soul—

Transcendental to the modes of nature as the Axiomatic Truth replete with the divine variegatedness of holy name, form, nature, associates, and pastimes, I alone am the mainstay and fountainhead of Brahman—the ultimate destination of the liberationists (jñānīs).

Immortality, immutability, eternality, the eternal sustenance of divine love, and the ultimate ecstasy of the divine mellows of Vṛndāvana (Vraja-rasa)—all these are supported by Me: the Transcendental, Variegated, Axiomatic Reality—Kṛṣṇa.

Encompassing the aggregate individuality and collectivity, the Absolute Autocracy over both the material and the spiritual planes is held by Śrī Kṛṣṇa alone, the Supreme Male Dominating Principle as corroborated in the Upaniṣads; and He is the objective sought after by the yogīs—

I am situated as the Supreme Lord within the hearts of all souls. As a result of a soul's worldly deeds, his remembrance, knowledge, and forgetfulness arise from Me alone. Thus, I am not only Brahman, the Absolute Spirit that pervades the universe, but above that, I am the Supersoul present in the hearts of the living beings, who dispenses the results of their attempts. And even above My worshippable aspects of Brahman and Paramātmā, I am the Guru of all souls, the eternal dispenser of their good fortune—I am Bhagavān, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, to be known by all the Vedas; I am the creator and perfect knower of all the axiomatic conclusions of the Vedas (Vedānta).

The desired goal is the supreme, divine lotus feet of Lord Viṣṇu, who is the ordainer of ultimate emancipation for the liberationists (jñānis), the Supreme Lord of the meditationists (yogīs), and the rewarder of the elevationists (karmīs)—

Thus one should search out that supreme goal of no return—the lotus feet of Lord Viṣṇu: ‘I surrender unto Him, the Original Person from whom the perpetual material world has extended.’

Of all yogīs who follow the paths based on action, knowledge, and meditation (karma, jñāna, dhyāna), the topmost are those who (abandon their respective attitudes in order to) take refuge in their heart's faith in My personal potency (svarūpa-śakti), and thus engage in my pure devotional service—

In My opinion, of all types of yogīs, the most elevated of all is he who surrenders his heart to Me and serves Me in devotion with sincere, internal faith.

Dedicating his whole life to devotional service with unalloyed faith, one who absorbs his heart in Me is definitely the highest of all devotees.

The ultimate sagacity is in Rāga-bhajana, spontaneous devotion (headed by servitude unto Śrī Rādhikā), under the impetus of the personal potency of the Original Lord who is beauty's own self—

Know Me as the source of everything that be, spiritual or material. Understanding this, the truly intelligent souls give their hearts to Me: they engage in My pure devotional service.

(As soon as persons with the propensity for service in love [bhāva-bhajana] realize the original form of Godhead [svayam-rūpa] to be the fountainhead of all currents of worship and devotion, then, in the mellow of divine consorhood [madhura-rasa], they will necessarily feel deep loyalty to intimately follow the impetus of full-blown service, this impetus being the Lord's personal potency [svarūpa-śakti] or the Female Embodiment of the acme in devotion [mahābhāva-svarūpā]. In this way, they attain to the servitude of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī [Śrī Rādhā-dāśya]. The purport is that the potency of Śrī Kṛṣṇa is also the Inauguratress of worship and devotion unto Him, and to engage in pure devotional service always in the shelter of such a conception in pure heart's devotion constitutes servitude to the Guru for the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavas, or Śrī Rādhā-dāśya in madhura-rasa.)

My male or female servitors, who have dedicated their entire lives to Me and taken full shelter in Me, mutually assist one another in a manner befitting their respective internal devotional aptitudes. They eternally relish conversing about Me, the satisfaction of serving Me, and the nectar of devotion culminating in My divine consorhood—

These are the symptoms of these exclusive devotees:

With heart and soul dedicated unto Me, they constantly exchange their devotional ecstasies while conversing about Me. By such hearing and chanting, in the stage of practice (sādhana) they enjoy the happiness of devotion; and in the stage of perfection (sādhya), that is, in the achievement of divine love (prema), they relish up to the mellow of My intimate relationship in divine consorthood, in the free spontaneity of Vraja.

By the potency of the purging effect of devotion for Kṛṣṇa, glaring inauspicious traits may arise in the character of a person who is exclusively devoted to the service of the Lord. Although such faults may seem to be abominable, they are not condemnable as born of evil motivations (as in a non-devotee). On the contrary, due to the natural, marvellous pristine glory of his exclusive devotion (ananya-bhajana), that devotee is to be known as a true saint—

If a person serves Me with heart exclusively devoted, even if his practices are abominable he is to be revered as a true saint (sādhur), because his life's resolve is perfect in all respects.

The supreme assurance: the purging of dirt by a process of purification and the natural emanation of dirt from a contaminated thing can never be one. Such a devotee is swiftly purified—he is never lost—

○ son of Kuntī, it is My promise that a soul who adopts exclusive devotion unto Me will definitely never fail. Despite the initial purging and sudden appearance of his defects, such anomalies are rapidly dispelled by his continuous remembrance of Me in repentance for the impediments to his service. He becomes impeccably devout in the soul's natural constitutional behaviour, and as a result of his devotion he attains supreme relief from the bondage of both sinfulness and piety.

Be My devotee, give Me your heart. Do not think of Me as the karma-yogīs, jñāna-yogīs, and dhyāna-yogīs do. Sacrifice your every endeavour for Me, the Supreme Personality of Godhead. It is my vow that without a doubt You will then achieve the servitude of My own Self, which is the embodiment of truth, sentience, and beauty. tatraiva

The only way to gain relief from all adversities, the only way to find the hidden treasure, is to abandon all consideration of religiosity or irreligiosity and surrender unto the lotus feet of the Absolute Reality the Beautiful Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra, the divine son of King Nanda—

To impart knowledge of My all-comprehensive aspect, Brahman, as well as knowledge of My all-permeating aspect, Paramātmā, whatever teachings I have given, based in general on: the duties of the socio-religious ranks of life, the duty of the mendicant, selflessness, internal and external sense-control, meditation, subservience to the dominion of the Almighty—now I ask you to summarily dismiss every one of those religiosities and surrender unto Me, the Personality of Godhead, Bhagavān. Then I shall deliver You from all sin of this worldly sojourn, as well as any sin incurred by giving up the aforementioned duties or religiosities. There will be no cause for you to lament that your life's mission is unfulfilled.

Śrī Hari is the cause of all worlds, gross and subtle—

Prior to the creation of this universe, only I existed. The gross, the subtle, and even the indefinable non-differentiated Absolute, Brahman—nothing whatsoever existed separately from Me. After the creation, I exist as the aggregate entity; and after the cataclysm, only I shall remain.

The aggregate of knowledge propounded by the Vedas—relation, means, and end (sambandha, abhidheya, prayojana)—arises from Him alone—

To be merciful upon you do I teach you the most esoteric knowledge of Me, including—the realization of My nature and entourage (sambandha-tattva), the inconceivable mystery of loving devotion or prema-bhakti (prayojana-tattva), and its constituent part in the form of devotional practice or sādhana-bhakti (abhidheya-tattva). Now hear My message attentively, and accept what I impart to you.

The message of the Vedas is eternal religion, nondifferent from Me. When in the course of time those eternal teachings disappeared from view with the universal cataclysm, I imparted them to Lord Brahmā at the dawning of a new creation.

The ultimate happiness is the attainment of the service of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, who is divine ecstasy personified—

My dear saints, where can the materialists find the happiness that I, the embodiment of divine ecstasy, bestow within the hearts of those who offer life and soul unto Me, and who have thus become indifferent to all else?

When a devotee desires any object which is attainable by the practitioners of religiosity based on karma, jñāna, and yoga, all his requirements are summarily achieved—

By engaging in devotional service, my devotee effortlessly attains anything and everything attainable in this world by virtuous practices such as duty, austerity, learning, detachment, meditation, charity, or religiosity. Even residence in Vaikuṅṭhaloka is his for the asking, to say nothing of the attainment of heaven or liberation.

Nor do they aspire for even positive liberation, beginning with residence in the Lord's abode, which is infinitely superior to ultimate emancipation of oneness in Brahman—

When My dedicated pure devotee never accepts any of the four kinds of positive liberation (sālokya, etc.) even if they avail themselves to him by dint of his service unto Me, then why will he ever wish for materialistic enjoyment and ultimate emancipation in Brahman (sāyujya-mukti), which are very swiftly vanquished by the march of time? By sāyujya-mukti, the soul's eternal status falls into the jaws of death. Thus, sense enjoyment and monistic liberation hold no permanence.

Only intense devotion can subjugate the Supreme Lord; meditation, knowledge, etc., cannot—

O Uddhava, pursuits such as eight-step yoga, knowledge of oneself as one with Brahman, brahminical religiosity and Vedic study, all kinds of austerity, selflessness in asceticism—none of these can bind Me as intense devotion does.

Intense devotion delivers even persons of uncontrolled senses from worldly enjoyment—

A person adopting the path of devotion may suffer the obstacle of his mind loitering somewhat in thoughts of mundanity, due to former habits of sensual dalliance. As he cultivates devotion, his service aptitude develops. And the more his boldness to serve increases, the more that materialistic devotee is gradually able to curb his attraction for the mundane. The only cause of failure for such aspirants is their lack of sincerity.

For one who receives the seed of devotion, who is selfless and penitent, denouncing his inability to abandon mundane enjoyment despite realizing it to be the embodiment of suffering, and who sincerely gives himself incessantly to all the practices of devotion—in the heart of such a devotee, the Supreme Lord ascends like the rising sun to annihilate all ignorance with its reactions, revealing His divine personality in all its pristine glory—

He who has imbibed heart's faith in the tidings of My name, nature, and pastimes; who has become indifferent to all kinds of fruitive work and its rewards; who has learnt that all forms of enjoyment of sensual passions ultimately transform into misery, yet he is unable to fully abandon such passions—such a faithful devotee, being determined that his shortcomings will be dispelled by the potency of devotion, gradually comes to abhor those evil passions that enslave him, knowing the havoc they wreak—and he serves Me with love: when his objective is pure and sincere, I give him My mercy.

In this way, the introspective devotee unceasingly absorbs himself in all the practices of devotional service as enunciated by Me. And I, who am situated in the heart of My devotee, strike at the root of all the material urges that infect his heart, reducing them to oblivion.

By bringing Me—the Soul of all souls—into his heart, no evil can remain there. Swiftly is the hard knot of mundane ego severed, all doubts are slashed, and all mundane action is exhausted for that earnestly aspiring devotee.

Since pursuits based on knowledge-cum-renunciation are sometimes agents of obstruction to pure devotion, they can never be integral parts of devotion—

The practice of dry gnosticism and stoic abnegation (jñāna and vairāgya) are unnecessary, and generally cannot be beneficial, for the faithful devotee who dedicates his heart and all his activities to the service of My lotus feet. (Even if jñāna and vairāgya are superficially employed in a preliminary stage, they are nonetheless not to be considered integral parts of pure devotion, which stands independently in her divine superexcellence.)

It is faith that qualifies one for exclusive devotion, not birth or any other worldly qualification—

O Uddhava, simply by their unalloyed hearts did the cowherd ladies, the cows of Vraja, the trees headed by the Yamalārjunas, the animals, the snakes headed by the evil Kāliya, and various objects of stultified intelligence headed by the shrubs and creepers of Vṛndāvana all attain perfection and swiftly reach Me. (Herein, sādhana-siddhā Gopīs and various other devotees who attained to perfection by pure devotional practice have been referred to.)

One must worship Lord Hari, even if it is necessary to abandon scripturally enjoined prescribed duties to do so—

In the Scriptures of Religion, I, the Supreme Lord, have instructed men of all statuses of life in their duties. Duly comprehending the purificatory virtue of executing those prescribed duties as well as the vice of neglecting them, one who abandons all allegiance to such dutifulness in order to engage in My devotional service is the best of honest men (sādhu).

The original form of the Lord is Vraja-kiśora, the adolescent cowherd boy of Vṛndāvana, and He is the Soul of all souls and of all incarnations of God as well. Actually forsaking the Vedic and allied scriptural injunctions of allegiance to husband and venerable person-ages headed by the demigods, one should, as the soul's pursuit in divine consortherd—the natural aggregate of all devotional mellows—follow the path of aspiring for union with that transcendental cowherd exclusively for His transcendental pleasure, and serve Him in pure devotion like a play-doll in His hands. He unfailingly protects one from the fear of all tribulation, demons, society, husband, son and family—

O Uddhava, totally abandoning the precepts of religiosity incited by the Vedas and corroborated in the Smṛti Scriptures, rejecting all injunctions and prohibitions, either well-known or yet to be known, take exclusive refuge in Me, the Soul of all beings—Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the Sweet Absolute. When you can do that with every mellow of your heart, you will be situated in My heart and thus not threatened from any quarter.

Utterly abandoning desire for worldly enjoyment or liberation, or the desire to become one of the demigods, the souls who embrace the service of Śrī Kṛṣṇa realize their eternal divine identity and attain confidential servitude to the Lord, gaining admission into the group of the followers of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī—

When the mortal being gives up all worldly attempts, completely offers himself to Me, and acts exclusively according to My desire, he attains to the state of nectar, or positive immortality. He is then accepted: he becomes qualified to enjoy the acme of divine ecstasy, united with Me as My family member.

The Original Supreme Lord of divine pastimes—the son of the King of Vraja—is by nature submissive to his surrendered souls, by His own sweet will. In the manifestation of the Lord's eternal fundamental identity, it is revealed that because love is everything to Him, law is naturally dependent upon and thus subordinate to love, and a brāhmaṇa is subordinate to the devotee of the Lord—

O My dear brāhmaṇa, I am subordinate to My devotee, and therefore I am like one who has no independence. The sādhu devotees have captured My heart. And not to speak of My devotees, those who are devoted to My devotees are also dear to Me.

For the devotees who have surrendered to the lotus feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, who have given up their families and prescribed duties for Him, and who within their deep absorption in His service feel brokenhearted by His separation, the Lord's message of supreme reassurance is His pledge as the most intimate family member to maintain the life of His devotee by giving His own name, affection, associates, body, and the ambrosia of His pastimes—

The Supreme Lord Śrī Hari, the vanquisher of the anguish of His surrendered souls, told His dearest surrendered soul (Uddhava, the messenger):

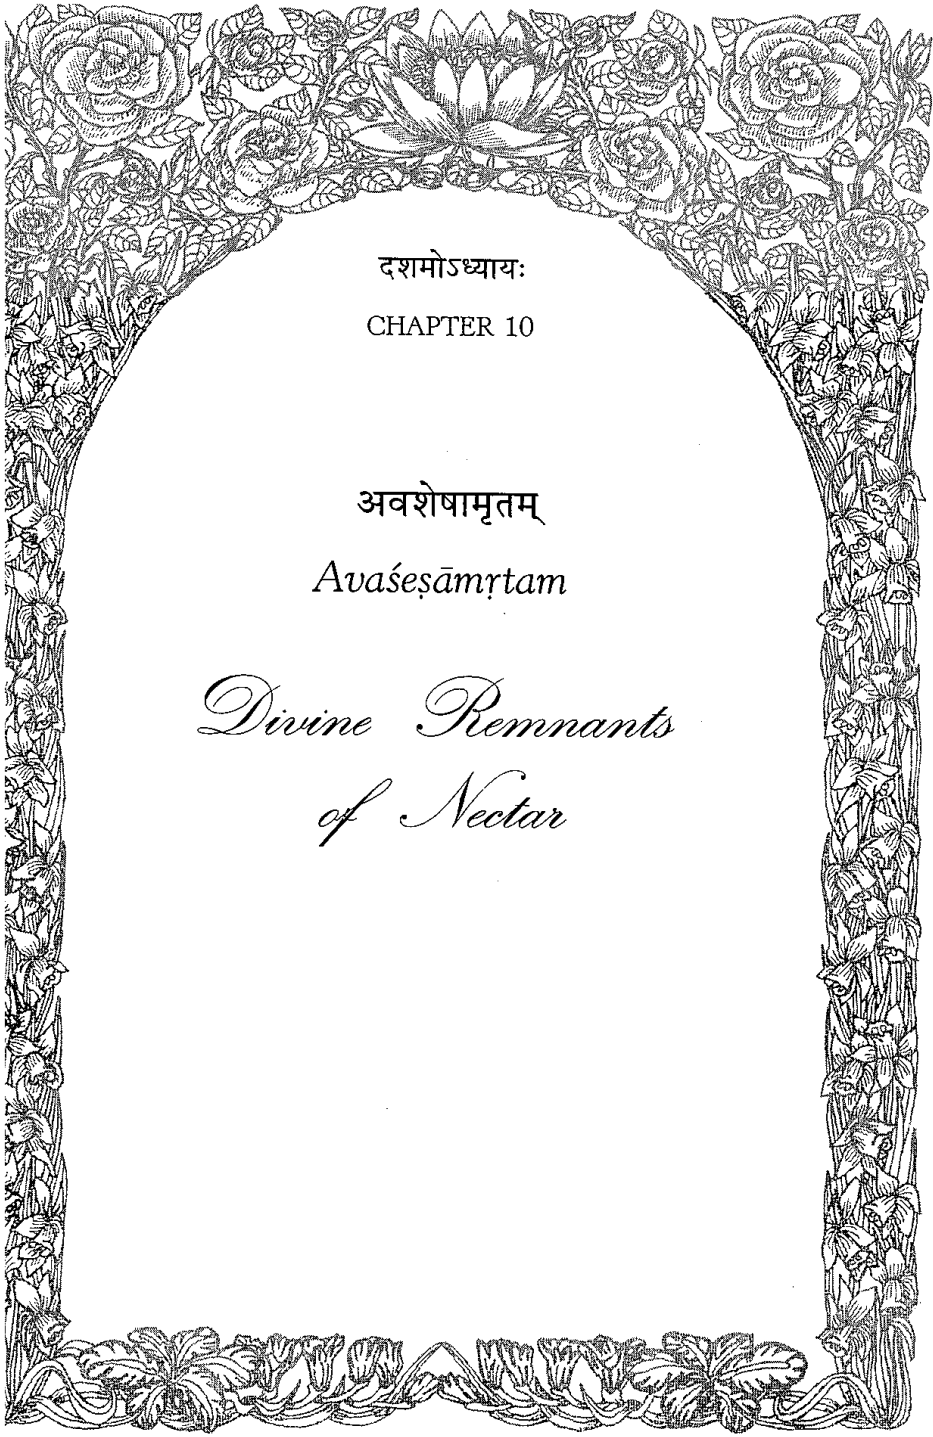

'I personally maintain those who have given up their prescribed duties and social obligations for Me.'

When the singing of the glorious qualities of the Supreme Lord Hari's personality is heard, He enters into the hearts of men to banish all their miseries, as the sun dispells the darkness and strong winds disperse the clouds.

मृषागिरस्ता ह्यसतीरसत्कथा न कथ्यते यद्भगवानधोक्षजः ।

Bhā: 12/12/49

Those words in which the glory of the transcendental Lord Śri Hari are not sung—such imaginary, deceptive utterances are to be known as falsehood. And those words in which the divine qualities of the Lord appear—such expressions are to be known as truth, the bestower of all success, and the source of all virtue.

तदेव रम्यं रुचिरं नवं नवं तदेव शश्वन्मनसो महोत्सवम् ।

Bhā: 12/12/50

Those words in which the renown of Uttamaḥśloka Śrī Hari (He, the singing of whose glories destroys the ignorance of the world) are broadcast at every second—such expressions alone constantly bestow newer and newer nectar, they inaugurate the heart's grand festival, and they dissolve the ocean of lamentation.

Bhā: 12/12/51

Those utterances that despite their charming, ornamental presentation never describe the renown of Śrī Hari, which alone purifies the universe—such words attract only crow-like, superficial men, but they are never attended by the learned. This is because the immaculate-hearted sādhus adore the melodious words that sing the glories of the Supreme Lord.

Bhā: 12/12/54

The prescribed duties of the Vaṛṇāśrama hierarchy, performance of austerity, and study of the Scriptures—belaboured adherence to such practices merely panders to one's reputation and influence. But by the divine services beginning with devotedly hearing the glories of the Lord, the supreme reward of never forgetting the lotus feet of Śrī Hari is gained.

Bhā: 3/15/43

A beautiful fragrance emanated from the Tulasī united with the stamens of the lotus flowerlike feet of the lotus-eyed Supreme Lord. When the breeze carrying that divine fragrance entered the nostrils (of the Catuḥ-sana), it caused jubilation in their hearts, and the hairs of their bodies stood erect, despite their zealous attachment to the non-differentiated Brahman.

Those sages who, being merged in the bliss of the spirit soul, are totally free from the binding knot of mental images—they too engage in the unmotivated service of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the performer of marvellous deeds. This is but one of the qualities of the Supreme

Lord Hari, who charms the entire world.

This Holy Scripture, which describes the glories of the Supreme Lord, has descended intact from the wish-fulfilling tree of the Vedas, and it is enhanced by the nectar of the lotus mouth of Śrī Śukadeva Goswāmī. O connoisseurs of the mellows of devotion, please constantly relish this fruit, which is the embodiment of those mellows. O devotees blessed with heart's devotion, as long as you are not utterly dissolved in the reality of ecstasy, that is, as long as your hearts are not merged in devotional mellow, then taste the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam in your life in this world (as a pure votary of Divinity); and even when your hearts are overflowed, you will perpetually continue to drink this supreme nectar divine.

Within four hundred years after Śrī Caitanyahari returned to His holy abode, a great soul descended in divine succession from Śrīla Gaura Kiśora Bābāji Mahārāja, as the potency of Lord Kṛṣṇa's mercy incarnate. Recognized as the joy of Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura and renowned throughout the universe as Śrīmad Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī, he flooded this earth planet with boundless Śrī Kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrtana.

A great fortune came down upon me. Although it was the rarest thing, I received the nectar of that great soul's mercy through his gracious ordinance: 'By performing Saṅkirttana in sādhu-saṅga, may you fulfill the ultimate goal of your life—Śrī Kṛṣṇa-prema.' So now, I try to practice this; may I be forgiven for any offences in my attempt.

The bees, intoxicated in the festival of drinking the honey of the Lord's lotus feet, busily humming the glories of the Lord, drops of honey from their mouths fall and scatter all around;
for my own divine prospect, I've carefully collected and thus do I worship the dust of the holy lotus feet of those saints, again and again.

Prayer unto the Lotus Feet of my Lord and Master
 Śrīla Prabhupāda

His lotus feet are served in devotion by multitudes of high, virtuous souls; he is the establisher of the religion of the age (as Śrī Kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrtana); he is the presiding monarch (of the Viśva-Vaiṣṇava-Rāja-Sabhā—the universal society of the pure devotees that are the true 'kings' or guides of all); and he is the fulfiller of the most cherished desires of those who dispell fear (for all souls). I make my obeisance unto the lotus feet of that illustrious great soul, worshippingable by one and all—perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

He is the leader of the fortunate souls blessed with the treasure of internal pure devotion; he is greatly merciful upon the fallen souls, being their only shelter; and his inconceivable holy feet are the shelter for the deceivers, by deceiving them. I make my obeisance unto his lotus feet—perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

I make my obeisance unto his divine, charming yet commanding lofty form of golden hue. That beautiful figure shames the mad ecstasy of golden lotus stems. Venerated by tens of millions of Cupids, the moons of the toenails of my Worshipful Divine Master reveal the beauty of his lotus feet. Perpetually do I make my obeisance unto that effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

Like the moon that delights the stars, he is surrounded by his circle of personal servitors, making their hearts bloom in divine ecstasy. The malicious non-devotees are made to flee in panic by the sound of his thunderous roar, and the simple, inoffensive souls attain the ultimate fortune by accepting his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy lotus feet of my Lord.

He has revealed the vast, magnificent beauty of Śrī Gaura Dhāma; he has broadcast the tidings of the supreme magnanimity of Śrī Gaurāṅga throughout the whole universe; and in the hearts of the fit recipients of his grace, he has firmly established the lotus feet of Śrī Gaura. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

He is the eternal shelter and the Universal Guru for the souls surrendered unto Śrī Gaurāṅga. Absorbed in the service of his Gurudeva, Śrī Gaura Kiśora, he wholeheartedly adores Śrī Bhakti-vinoda Ṭhākura. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

He is the illustrious personality to raise the flag that sings the glory of Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātana, and Śrī Raghunātha. His glory is sung throughout the world as nondifferent from the powerful personality of brilliant erudition, Śrī Jīva. And he has won the renown of being one with the hearts of Śrīla Kṛṣṇadāsa Kavirāja and Ṭhākura Narottama. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

Bestowing his grace upon all souls, he is Hari-kīrtana incarnate. As the associate of Śrī Gaura, he relieves Mother Earth of the burden of offences committed upon her. And he is so gracious that his endearance of all beings excels that of even a father. I make my obeisance unto him—the mine of all these qualities; perpetually do I bow down to the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

Like a wish-fulfilling tree for his surrendered servitors (he fulfills their heart's aspirations), even a tree is shamed by his magnanimity and forbearance. And great personalities who are competent to confer boons—they, too, worship his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

— 10 —

The crown-jewel of the paramahāmsas, the Prince of the treasure of the supreme perfection of life, Śrī Kṛṣṇa-prema, he accepted the robes of a mendicant sannyāsī just to deliver the fallen souls. The topmost tridaṇḍī sannyāsīs attend his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

— 11 —

He is the dearest intimate follower of the Divine Daughter of Śrī Vṛṣabhānu, and I know myself as the most fortunate by taking the dust of his holy feet upon my head. I make my obeisance unto his invincible, wondrously purifying lotus feet—perpetually do I bow to the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

Prayer in Separation of Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura

Alas, alas! O Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura, O Supreme Guru, for twenty-two years this world has been plunged into misfortune, long grief-stricken in your intolerable separation. You are the divine potency of Śrī Gaura, and you graciously made your advent in this earthly plane, being attracted by the living beings' virtuous deeds performed throughout many lifetimes.

Since I am lowly and very wretched, it was not my luck to reach the ocean that bestows the fortune of surrender—the ocean of the ecstasy of bathing in a particle of the dust of your holy lotus feet. Yet due to your magnanimous nature, you gave your grace to the whole universe, personally revealing your supereminence as the personification of the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. (That is, by coming into this world, I received his grace.)

O Lord, even all the demigods headed by Lord Brahmā feel frustrated by their inability to (fittingly) sing the glories of all your divine qualities. What, then, can be said of the attempt of a fallen soul, a mere human like me? Surely, the learned will never waste their eloquent words eulogizing this statement, since even the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa Himself, has sung in the Scriptures His celebrated confession na pāraye 'ham—'I am unable (to reciprocate your devotion).'

At a time when religion was evaluated in terms of bodily relationship, saintliness was determined by ignorance, and yoga practice was motivated by sensual pleasure; when scholarship was cultivated just for voidism, japa was conducted for the sake of fame, and penance was performed out of vindictiveness; when charity was given out of pride, and on the pretext of spontaneous devotion the most gross, sinful acts were perpetrated—and in all such anomalous situations even the intelligentsia were at loggerheads with one another . . . at that very time, you were sent by the Almighty Creator.

As the universally cooling moon is beautified by diffusing its nectarean rays, nourishing the plants and inciting the twinkling of the stars, your Holy Advent in this world is similarly ascertained as satisfying the pure devotional Scriptures (through profound study) and blessing the learned with full-blown happiness (by the perfect axiomatic conclusions descending in Divine Succession). With your appearance, the ecstasy of the devotees knows no bounds.

By writing many books and by multifarious methods recognized by the pure devotees, you have demonstrated the preaching of pure devotional service unto the Supreme Lord, for the benefit of the whole world. We have heard of similar achievements in previous times by stalwart scholars such as Śrī Rāmānuja and many other Ācāryyas; but the glory of you—the very embodiment of the nectar of divine love—does not end (cannot be confined) here.

Merely the effulgence of His divine abode has been designated by the title 'Brahman' in the Vedas, and only the expansion of an expansion of His expansion is sought after with great tribulation by the foremost yogīs. The most exalted of the liberated souls shine resplendent as the bumblebees at His lotus feet. The Primeval Origin of even the Original Śrī Nārāyaṇa who is the Lord of the spiritual sky above Brahman: He is the Original Supreme Lord, the personification of all nectarine mellows—Śrī Kṛṣṇa—and He is the one that you give.

Situated in the topmost region of the absolutely inconceivable spiritual sky is the holy abode of Śrī Vṛndāvana Dhāma, in the spiritual planet known as Goloka. There, surrounded by Sakhīs, Śrīmatī Rādhikā revels in the mellows of divine pastimes. With great ecstasy, She expands the joy of loving sweetness in the service of Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra, who is otherwise served in four relationships up to parenthood. You, O Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda, can give us the service of that holy Dhāma.

The internal purport is known to Śrī Svarūpa Dāmodara by the sanction of Śrī Gauracandra, of that which is adored by Śrī Sanātana Goswāmī and distributed by the preceptors realized in transcendental mellows, headed by Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī; that which is tasted and enhanced by Śrī Raghunātha Dāsa Goswāmī and followers and carefully protected by the votaries headed by Śrī Jīva Prabhu; and that which (from a respectful distance) is venerated by great personalities such as Śrī Śuka, Lord Śiva, the chief of the demigods, and Lord Brahmā, the grandfather of all beings—O wonder of wonders! the nectarine rapture of servitude unto Śrī Rādhikā—that, too, you can give us.

— 10 —

Where am I, so lowly and fallen, and where are you, the great soul who delivers the universe! O Lord, by your grace, you are sure to forgive my offences. O ocean of mercy, in the dust of your lotus feet I pray for just this benediction: kindly make my life successful by recommending me for admission into the group of Śrī Vārṣabhānavī Dayita Dāsa, who is the dearest one in your heart.

Translator's Note:

The preceding prayer to Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura (1838–1914), the pioneer of pure devotion in the recent age, was composed within the lifetime of the author's Guru, Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākura Goswāmi Prabhupāda. Upon reading the original Sanskrit verse, Śrīla Prabhupāda commented, "Now I am confident that we have one man who is qualified to uphold the standard of our Sampradāya (Divine Succession)."

Homage unto

Śrī Śrīmad Gaura Kiśora Bābājī Mahārāja

O Divine Master of my Divine Master, my most venerable preceptor, you are supremely worshippingable in the group of the foremost associates of Śrī Gaurāṅga. May you be gracious upon this servitor surrendered unto your loving servitor (Dayita Dāsa). O Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

O worshipful one, you alone revealed my Lord and Master, who is renowned throughout the universe as Śrī Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī, and who is the only friend of the fallen souls of the world. O Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Living in solitude at Vraja Dhāma, your heart was absorbed in the most secret pastimes of the Divine Youthful Couple of Vraja, whilst externally you maintained the strictures of a renunciate; and sometimes you appeared to transcend all recognized strictures. O Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Sometimes you roam about the edge of Gauravana (the boundary of Śrī Navadvīpa Dhāma), wandering along the beach near the banks of the Gaṅgā. O Gaura Kiśora, who dons the holy loin-cloth and carries the mendicant's water-pot, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Ever singing the holy name of Śrī Hari with great ecstasy and accepting alms from house to house like a bee collecting honey from flower to flower, you are the great soul unto whom even the demigods bow to. O Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Becoming overwhelmed with love for your worshipful Lord, sometimes you dance, sometimes you cry, sometimes you laugh; and again, you sing aloud. The people profusely offer their respects unto you, O Gaura Kiśora, and again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

O friend of the glorious Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda, O matchless ocean of the nectar of loving devotion for Mahāprabhu Śrī Caitanyadeva, O moon that received the grace of Vaiṣṇava Sārvvabhauma Śrī Jagannātha, O Gaura Kiśora! again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Completing the great holy vow of Ūrija-vrata, you selected the day of the awakening of Śrī Dāmodara to achieve the cherished treasure of your internal identity as a Sakhī devoted to the service of Śrī Rādhikā. O Gaura-Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Forsaking the company of the residents of Kuliya town to accept the service of your servitor Śrī Dayita Dāsa, your divine presence is now found in a holy temple at Śrī Dhāma Māyāpura. O Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make obeisance unto you.

— 10 —

Although I remain deep in the mud of offences, I (a fallen soul) am begging you for your causeless mercy. Please be gracious and deliver this soul bereft. O Gaura Kiśora, again and yet again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Prayer unto Śrī Śrī Dayita Dāsa

(after the manifest pastimes of Śrī Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī Thākura)

At the end of the night of Śrī Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandini, She suddenly took him to her entourage, withdrawing him from the company of throngs of griefstricken souls. A great cry of lamentation arose, their bodies were bathed by their tears. When he was thus stolen away, this world was plunged into the deep darkness of one whose eyes have been stolen away (hr̥ta—stolen away; nayana-maṇi—jewel of the eye—the internal name of Saraswatī Ṭhākura is ‘Nayana-maṇi’).

(Bereft of the vision of my Divine Master,) O my sorrowful eyes (dīna-nayana), (or, O saviour of the fallen [Dīna-nayana],) wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there! (Although he is my Master named ‘Nayana,’ or ‘one who brings us near,’ in his mercy he shows the miserliness of not taking me unto his company.)

From his lotus feet, the nectarine river of divine love flows throughout the universe; his servitors, like bees, maintain their lives drinking the honey that falls from his lotus feet; and the pure devotees in the shelter of the confidential mellows of Vraja revel in the bliss of singing the glories of his lotus feet: O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

Parental affection, so highly esteemed in the world, is a colossal hoax (as an obstacle to Hari-bhakti); socially recognized pure matrimonial love is nothing but dacoity (in that it plunders away both the husband’s and the wife’s eagerness for the chance to acquire the treasure of love unadulterated by the superficiality of familial prejudice); and common friendship is merely deception: I have gleaned these thoughts from the rays of light that emanate from the toenails of the holy feet of that great personality, the embodiment of supramundane affection. O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

The divine message sung by Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanyacandra had its continuous play in the ears of the people. From the ear, did he, just to fulfill the purport of the name 'Nayana-maṇi,' reveal his form to the eye, making his advent in the mansion (temple) favoured by the glance of Śrī Nīlācalacandra (at the time of the Rathayātrā festival)? O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul (Mahāpuruṣa) may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

Drawing up the pure golden waters of the Jambu River mentioned in Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, has this golden cloud arisen on the mountain where the golden moon (Śrī Gauracandra) descended (set), just to shower down torrents of rain upon the whole countryside that was scorched by the forest fire (of threefold sufferings), then suddenly conceal himself in the dust of the land of the Advent of Śrī Gaurāṅga? O Dīna-nayana, wherever that Great Master may be now, please quickly take this servitor to that place.

He is of the same hue as Śrī Gaura, and although he, who sings the tidings of Śrī Gaura, is the (natural) Guru of the whole universe, he accepted discipleship to a great devotee called Śrī Gaura Kiśora ('adolescent Gaura'). In the whole Gaura-maṇḍala he is the repository of the glory of those who grant entrance into the fold of the pure Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavas. He proudly ascended the lofty throne of preaching the glories of the gift of the Golden Lord Śrī Gaura (the service of Śrī Rādhā-Govinda in Vraja) to the Vaiṣṇavas of Draviḍa (the devotees in South India, who are generally worshippers of Lakṣmī-Nārāyaṇa). The glory of his dignity shines even in the group of Śrī Gāndharvā, and he holds a pre-eminent position in the intimate circle of Śrī Giridhārī, that is, he is the most beloved of Lord Mukunda. O Dīna-nayana, where that great soul is now, please swiftly take this servitor there.

He inundated the whole universe of countless living beings—whether brāhmaṇa, kṣatriya, vaiśya, śūdra, less than śūdra, and even mleccha—with the oceanic nectar of the holy name of Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. Although unapproachable by the liberationists and yogic perfectionists, he is known as the friend of the fallen, the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

Do I have a hope to ever see that beautiful golden personality who makes everything auspicious for the world? Do I have a hope to ever behold that tall figure once again, his blue lotus eyes, his nose that excells the charm of the Tila flower, his forehead that shames the half-moon, his graceful lotus face, his gleaming pearl-white teeth, his long arms extending to his knees? O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul has gone, please swiftly take this servitor there.

In the year of our Lord Gaurāṅga 450, in the month of Pauṣa, on the fourth day of the dark fortnight of the moon in the star of Maghā, at the closing of the night of Bṛhaspativara (5.30 a.m., 1st January, 1937), that most beloved attendant of Śrīmatī Vṛṣabhānundinī entered into the eternal pastimes. O Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, quickly take this servitor there to him.

— 10 —

The entire earth and skies were filled with the cries of anguish of the people, and of the disciples devoted to the service of Śrī Gurudeva's lotus feet. Where has that Great Master gone? Alas!

today the whole universe seems empty, in the separation of Prabhupāda. The servitor of Gurudeva cannot endure even a moment of his separation. O Dīna-nayana, wherever, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there to him.

Aspiring for the Dust of Śrīmad Rūpa Goswāmī's Lotus Feet

Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī is the mine of the most precious treasure, the leader of the associates of Lord Caitanya (the Divine Succession being known as the Rūpānuga Sampradāya, ‘the followers of Śrī Rūpa’). In the company of his brothers, he was resplendent in (the province of) Gauḍa, causing the fervent twin bumblebees in the form of the lotus eyes of Śrī Caitanyadeva to drink nectar, as the Lord’s lotus feet moved on the pretext of visiting Vṛndāvana. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy feet?

At Śrī Rāmakeli Dhāma, the king of bees—the heart of Śrī Rūpa—became intoxicated drinking the honey-wine of the lotus feet of Śrī Gauracandra, and sacrificed its life (in Hari-kīrttana) for the benefit of all the people of the world, summarily abandoning a life of kingly opulence. After informing his elder brother Śrī Sanātana, Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother Śrī Vallabha followed the footsteps of Śrī Caitanyadeva, whose heart was absorbed in going (from Nilācala) to Śrī Vṛndāvana. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

Śrī Caitanyadeva returned from Vṛndāvana to Prayāga Dhāma and performed Nāma-saṅkīrttana, surrounded by crowds of hundreds of thousands. Intoxicated with divine love, dancing, He melted the hearts of hundreds of faithful souls with His astonishing transcendental ecstasies. Śrī Rūpa, as though regaining his most precious treasure, thus found Śrī Caitanyadeva in the direct presence of the Deity Śrī Bindu Mādhava. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

At the sacred spot on the confluence of the Gaṅgā and the Yamunā, Śrī Rūpa achieved intimate union with the lotus feet of the dearest Lord of his life—the Lord who is Kṛṣṇa within and Gaura without. In grave humility, with straw in mouth and with tears of sorrow, he along with his younger brother worshipped Śrī Gaura-Kṛṣṇa in intense love. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

Śrī Caitanyadeva saw Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother rolling on the ground some distance away. Seeing His endeared one, His favourite, His love divine personified in natural beauty and charm, His exclusive alter ego in divine pastimes, the Lord swiftly approached Śrī Rūpa, profusely singing his glories, and embraced him in ecstasy. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

Śrī Gaurahari knew that (as an eternal associate of the Lord) Śrī Rūpa was already proficient in wandering throughout the ambrosial ocean of all mellows, in the land of unalloyed love (in Vraja-rasa). Nonetheless, to expand His own pastimes, the Lord enabled him to drink the sweet ecstasy of servitude unto Śrī Rādhā, and empowered him with the skill to distribute the nectar of His personal devotional service. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

When on the order of Śrī Gaurāṅga, Śrī Rūpa visited Śrī Puruṣotama Kṣetra after completing the circumambulation of Śrī Vraja Maṇḍala, He highly gratified Śrī Caitanyadeva and the sagacious devotee assembly headed by Śrī Svarūpa Dāmodara and Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya by his ambrosial poetry on the pastimes of the Divine Couple of Vraja. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

When the manifest līlā of the Supreme Lord Śrī Caitanyadeva was withdrawn, all beings including the immobile entities were mortified, deeply afflicted in sorrow. Śrī Rūpa and his elder brother were the only shelter for even the intimate devotees of the Lord, headed by Raghunātha, Gopal Bhaṭṭa, and Śrī Jīva, who had almost lost their lives in the Lord's separation. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

By writing many, many books, he gave the world all the most cherished desires of his worshipful Lord Śrī Caitanyadeva, principally—revealing the service of the Deity, establishing the pure code of conduct in devotion, revealing the lost holy places, and revealing the path of spontaneous devotion (Rāga-mārga) in transcendental loving service to Śrī Rādhā-Govinda. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

— 10 —

Just prior to the withdrawal of his manifest līlā, my causelessly merciful Divine Master, Śrīla Saraswatī Ṭhākura, handed me over to the holy feet of that Divine Personality by having me sing the glorious prayer unto his lotus feet (Śrī Rūpa-mañjarī-pada). Despite my lowliness, when will—disregarding all my various qualifications and disqualifications—Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

Homage unto Śrī Dayita Dāsa

He (of divine form) came forth from the birthplace of the golden lotus—the ocean of the mellow of divine consorthood. His large, merciful eyes dispell (the suffering souls') fear and proclaim (the surrendered souls') victory. His tongue (constantly) vibrates the whole Earth planet with Śrī Kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrtana, his beauty resplendent in the robes of the sun's radiance (saffron) that purifies the universe and dispells the suffering of material existence. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

The devotees surrendered in pure devotion are eternally protected at his lotus feet. He is worshippable by the pure souls endowed with sincerity and good fortune, and he accepts (even) those who obstruct the service of Śrī Hari, just to rectify them. As the very fountainhead of mercy upon all mobile and immobile beings, he crushes the inauspiciousness of the whole universe. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

Like a miracle, his body moves with a joyful elegance and charm beyond the world's understanding, fulfilling the artist's aspiration. (Or, dancing in pastimes transcendental to the world, his artistic form incites divine love's hankering). His intellect surpasses that of (even) the demigods, and he is nobility incarnate as the commander-in-chief of the Vaiṣṇava sannyāsis (tridaṇḍi-yatis). The sādhus of profound intellect describe the nature of his personality as meticulously in the line of Śrī Sanātana, Śrī Rūpa, and Śrī Raghunātha, and they speak of him as being on the same plane as Śrī Jīva-pāda (being superbly replete in perfect theistic conclusions). On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānundanī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

On the bank of Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa at Svānanda Sukhada Kuñja, he is devoted to the service of his Beloved, and (furthermore) he is greatly endeared to the divine damsels of Vraja headed by Lalitā. He is most favourite to Kamala-mañjarī who is pre-eminent in Vṛndāvana, and with the glorious qualities of Guṇamañjarī he builds the residence of Śrī Hari. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānundanī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

He is immaculate joy incarnate, or, he is the graciousness or the joy of Vimalā Devī. He manifested the pastimes of his Advent at Puruṣottama Kṣetra in the holy land of Orissa, and he revealed his pastimes of delivering the fallen souls and extending his mercy upon them (by awarding them the gift of divine love) at the 'new isles,' or Navadvīpa. Circumambulating Gaura Dhāma in the same way as traditionally done at Vraja Dhāma and Puruṣottama Dhāma, he continuously propagates—the loving desire of Vraja, the divine abode of Vaikuṅṭha, and the holy name of Kṛṣṇa. On his Day of Holy Advent, I (again and again) make my obeisance unto that dear associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānundanī and the servitors of his holy lotus feet.

APPENDIX

The amended and expanded translation of the author's poem composed in 1941 (as found on page 5)

The original English translation of the famous Sanskrit verse Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhara Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj composed while residing in a hut on the banks of the Ganges in 1941 (as found on page 5 of this PDF/Internet Edition) has later been expanded by the translator (Śrīpād Swarupānanda Prabhū) in accordance with Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj's Bengali translation. This updated translation is included below.

In the Holy Abode of transcendental touchstone Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām—the selfsame Śrī Vṛndāvan, in the land of Koladwīp, whose inner identity is the King of mountains Śrī Govarddhan, near the charming shores of the holy River Bhāgīrathī who delivers all the fallen souls stands that grand and glorious King of all Temples—Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh.

In that beautiful retreat, the surrendered devotees whose lives are the message of Śrī Gaura, are eternally absorbed in the loving service of the Divine Master, the Golden Lord Gaurāṅga and the Loving Lord Śrī Govindasundar with His consort Śrīmatī Gāndharvā, accompanied by all Their beloved associates.

With hearts always filled with good hope to attain the grace of the Lord, following faithfully in the line of Śrī Śrī Rūpa and Raghunāth—the storekeepers of the unlimited treasure of pure, sweet love divine, those surrendered souls ever sing the unending glories of the transcendental Name and qualities of the most magnanimous, original Supreme Lord Śrī Śrī Gaurāṅgasundar.

Indeed the hearts of all beings, moving and still, marvel in the glory of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh as they take shelter in the soothing, affectionate shade of the victory flag that flies aloft and sings wholeheartedly to the world the ever-expanding renown of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh; bearing that banner of all transcendental benedictions, Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh ever shines resplendent in all its divine magnificence.
